Fifth Aschbacher Gets Eagle Scout Award

by GLORIA DAVIS

On Sunday, the Aschbacher family saw their son Mark, 18, senior at Antioch High School, become an Eagle Scout at the Antioch Moose Lodge.

Although a happy occasion, it was not an unusual one for the Aschbacher family to experience since four of Mark's older brothers all received the same honor.

Their sixth son, Matt, 15, is expected to become an Eagle Scout next year.

This was also not a new ceremony for Boy Scout Troop 92 since there have been 19 Eagle Scouts emerging from that troop.

According to Troop 92's Scoutmaster Bernie Dost, the keen interest that the Aschbacher family has had in Scouting for a long time (father Tom works as Dost's assistant), is partially responsible for the drive that Scouts must have to get an Eagle Scout Badge.

The entire family was at the ceremony, mom, dad, three sisters and four brothers, except for the sixth Aschbacher son, Greg, 23, who was unable to attend.

Although five Eagle Scouts in one family is a record of sorts in the area and may even be a state record, the national record stands at seven. Next year's six Eagle Scouts in one family and 20th from one troop is also expected to challenge some kind of record.

Dost attributes this to the fact that many Scouts in Troop 92 have achieved Scouting's highest honor because the troop does everything it can to help its members do just that.

Members of the Aschbacher family that have been honored as Eagle Scouts that were there to cheer brother Mark on were David, 26, John, 25, and Phil, 22.

Valuation Up $6 Million

by GLORIA DAVIS

According to Antioch Twp. Assessor Bud Holtz, the assessed valuation of the township without exemptions figured in amounts to $165,867,510.

After exemptions are subtracted ($17 million from Homestead, etc.) the valuation has been set at $148,490,261 for 1986.

The tax rate will be raised to 7.508 per $100 of assessed valuation, up from last year's rate of $6.789 per $100.

Holtz said that the major reasons for the raise in the tax rate is a raise in the road and bridge cost since the cost of the fixing of the bridge at the north end of Lake Catherine was all figured in one year's budget.

The cost of the county court house addition and the funds for the Antioch Twp. Library also brought about the tax rate raise.

The equalized assessed valuation of Antioch Twp. has risen by $6 million from $142,451,271 in 1985.

Call For Tax Rate Increase At Grass Lake

by GLORIA DAVIS

Over 150 Grass Lake Grade School electors showed up at Monday night's meeting concerned about the school board's approval of $50,000 in cuts in school programs.

The cuts include the hot lunch program, one full-time junior high social studies teacher, art and remedial reading teachers, and two full-time cooks.

Supt. Anthony Przeklasa claims that the school will probably need more than that $50,000, especially if it loses the predicted $21,000 in revenue sharing if Gov. James Thompson fails to get his tax increase.

According to Przeklasa, many of the parents attending the school board meeting voiced sentiments towards a tax rate increase.

John Fleshman, spearheader of a group that call themselves "The Citizens and Taxpayers for the Continuation of Quality Education at Grass Lake School", read a letter stating that the group intends to work within the community to pass a tax rate raise.

The board instructed the superintendent, by the May board meeting, to prepare the proper resolution necessary to get the rate increase proposal on the November ballot.

The board also approved four new policies concerning the reporting of child abuse, citizens' involvement in school board actions, the Freedom of Information Act, the start of a mailing list to electors containing ongoing school district information if requested.

negotiating team to meet with the teachers and a negotiator. The negotiator is from the law firm of Gottlieb and Schwartz.

D'Arcy Wins Board Seat

Brosius D'Arcy, Edward D. Jones & Co. Investments, Antioch, has just been elected a trustee for the Village of Spring Grove in the April 7 election.

This is D'Arcy's first venture into local politics and he was the second highest vote getter in the village election.

D'Arcy has lived in Spring Grove for four years with his wife and two children. He is originally from River Grove.

Hanson Gets 155 Votes As Write-In

In his first venture into municipal politics, Larry Hanson had a creditable showing in the April 7 election for Antioch Village trustee.

Having announced his write-in candidacy just a few weeks before the election, Hanson was not expected to garner too many votes.

Larry Hanson received 96 votes and Lawrence Hanson (both acceptable) received 59 votes, making his official vote total 155 or fifth in a five-way race that was won by three long time village board incumbents.

Hanson, manager of BJ's Fashions for Men, is well-known in the village because of his work with the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, presently serving as its acting president.

Club Holds Fish Boils

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club has implemented monthly Door County-style Fish Boils as a fundraiser for the 27-year-old club.

The fish boils are held at a different place each month. The April dinner will be held from 5 to 9 p.m. on Saturday, April 25, at Pink Harrison's Resort, 801 W. Harrison Ln. (on Pistakee Bay), McHenry. The all-you-can-eat meal, which includes pie and coffee, costs $6 for adults and $4 for children 12 and under. Tickets may be purchased in advance by calling NICC at (312) 395-6422.

Proceeds from the fish boils help pay for the club's newly acquired property and aids in its conservation work.

The May fish boil will be held at Harmony Resort, Pistakee Lake, McHenry, on May 16.

Faces Assault Charges

George Higgins, 26, Antioch, who has a prior prison record for assault, has been charged with the aggravated assault of his girlfriend.

Higgins has been accused of shooting a .22 caliber pistol in the air in front of her house in Zion where he was allegedly talking to her on the porch of her home, then pointing the gun at her and then himself, while threatening to shoot himself.

He is reportedly upset because of the woman's break-up with him.

Higgins, a Yellow Cab driver, was arrested a short time after the incident by the Waukegan police and turned over to the Zion police. He is set to appear in Lake County Court on the charges on April 22.

Four Seek Two Open Seats At St. Peters

The election of St. Peter School Board members will take place after all masses on Sunday, April 26, and after the 5:30 p.m. mass on April 25. Four people are seeking a position on the board. There are two three-year positions open.

BRUCE L. PAGNI, his wife Joan, and their two daughters have been parishioners since 1971. He teaches critical thinking and debate, speech and drama at Waukegan West High School. He is also a part-time instructor at the College of Lake County.

A graduate of the University of Illinois, he holds both a bachelor of arts and a master of arts degree. Pagni has served as a member of the St. Peter School Board for the last three years and is seeking re-election. Additionally he has been a lector/commentator, CCD instructor, and was one of the original co-chairpersons for Footlights 1982 to '86.

He states, "...that as a member of the school board, I have attempted to be a liaison between the parents and the school, developing policies and programs which encourage basic skills and religious and moral values. I also believe that a board member needs to be supportive of the teachers and administrators who are most aware of the educational needs of the children. Students have a right to educational opportunities that challenge them to use their creative potentials; preparing them for higher learning, which will insure their future success."

JAMES J. NAUSEDA is a lifelong resident of Antioch, along with his wife, LaVergne and their three children. He is a graduate of St. Peter School and Antioch High School. He attended the College of Lake County and the University of Illinois, earning a degree in business.

Nauseda is a sales manager for a machining firm in Elk Grove, and was previously in purchasing for 14 years with Outboard Marine Corp. in Waukegan and Buehler in Lake Bluff.

He has been a member of St. Peter Choir for the past eight years and has been involved with "Footlights" for the past five years. He will manage the family room and perform with "Grease" this year. For the past three years he has been involved in Summerfest and was co-chairman of the entertainment committee in 1986.

He shares his views, "...I am pleased with the current level of education at, and the operation of St. Peter School. I am seeking this position to hopefully maintain this level and possible add to the overall quality established by the present board. I feel that I have the ability to share ideas and experiences that will ensure the best education for our students."

DEBBIE THELEN has been an Antioch resident and active member of St. Peter Parish since 1973. She and her husband, Jack reside in Antioch Twp, with their three children. She currently works part-time in the family-owned sand, gravel and ready-mixed concrete business.

She has been active in many community and parish events throughout the years, including the VIP Dinner and St. Peter Summerfest and "Footlights." She also served as secretary/treasurer of Cub Scout Packs 190 and 192, and is a current member of the Antioch Boy Scout Troop 92 committee.

A Navy "brat," she traveled extensively throughout the U.S. during her school years, and attended a number of grade and high school, both public and private.

Thelen states, "I realized at an early age that a quality education was the key to successfully meeting the many challenges I would encounter in my future. It has been stated that the primary goal of St. Peter School is 'the education of each child in all important areas, moral, spiritual, academic and physical...' By working together, parishioners, parents, administration and board members can achieve this goal. As a board member I would strive to work in a cooperative manner with all of the people involved in reaching and maintaining the high scholastic and spiritual standards which are being set here at St. Peter School."

JEAN M. FRITZ, her husband, Terry and their four children are Lake Villa residents. They have been members of St. Peter Parish for 13 years.

She grew up in Chicago, attended St. Gall Grammar School and graduated from Lourdes High School. She attended Loyola University for two years and graduated from the College of Lake County in 1985 with an associate of applied science degree in medical record technology.

Fritz works part-time at Lake Forest Hospital as a medical records technician. She has been involved in "Footlights" and Summerfest, as well as activities in Scouting and athletics.

She shares her views, "I feel that my parochial school background and involvement here at St. Peter School has provided me with the experience and insights necessary to make a meaningful contribution to our school. I believe that we are responsible for providing our children with the opportunities necessary for their spiritual, educational and social growth. By working together as a parish, faculty and student body we can be a positive, creative force in our children's future."

Letters To The Editor:

Disregarding Welfare

Editor:

Repeatedly irresponsible and totally unwarranted attempts were made by Lake County newspapers to represent those of us who attended the landfill and incineration hearings as an unruly, angry and uneducated mob. One newspaper even depicted two members of the audience who were merely listening intently as "appearing to be angry."

No reporter or editor has any business making a statement unless he attended all the hearings or has read the transcripts.

To depict the issue as "Just Politics" shows not only ignorance of the facts, but total disregard for the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of central Lake County.

To promote another landfill operation at the site of the aquifer that supplies water to a Grayslake and Mundelein well, shows contempt for the people who drink that water. Waste management admits that there will be a 40 percent reduction in the amount of municipal waste and 60 percent, including metals and other refuse too toxic to incinerate as well as barrels of toxic fly ash from facility, will be landfilled. Until the incinerator is completed all waste will be buried. There is no known technology that can guarantee that sometime in the future dangerous leachate will not penetrate into the aquifer.

In this area of severe air inversion it is homicidal folly to advocate introduction of any incinerator or industrial emissions into the air.

Waste management has testified under oath that none of their records on the Tampa facility, financial or operational, are open for anyone on the county board to examine.

Every facility is an experiment, and unproven until operated for several years. Contrary to their representation, there are complaints about European facilities later than 1983. The Tampa facility, upon which design "scrubbers" have been added and has been in operation less than two years, is the facility proposed to us. If the Tampa system is doing its job, why are "scrubbers" being added?

Finally, Lake Michigan is downwind from the proposed location and some of the plume ash will fall there. With the PCB problem, the pollution and refuse from pleasure craft operating out of the numerous marinas being built, the residual waste from atomic energy plant and the asbestos from JM buried close to the water's edge and with the lake rising yearly, how long before Lake Michigan's waters become undrinkable even when put through a filtration plant?

Will our descendants find themselves drinking either bottled mineral water or purified water from sewage as Europeans do? Are we too greedy in the development of Lake County to face up to the fact that our children will be living in the filth we leave behind?

The citizenry is aware of the problems and has shown not only their concern, but a sincere willingness to help the county in promoting anything that will reduce and alleviate the problem. Why don't you respect your readers instead of insulting their intelligence?

Appreciate Turndown

Editor:

I want to take this opportunity to thank Lake County Board members for so soundly turning down the ARF expansion application. The county board showed good judgment on that decision.

I would like to urge members to continue using their best judgment by disapproving the Waste Management incinerator/landfill application.

As you well know, the Lake County Joint Action Solid Waste Planning Agency, an agency set up and funded in part by the board, has recommended rejection of the incinerator/landfill proposal. In testimony during the Waste Management Hearing, Mr. Luedtke, chairman of the Agency, made the following points:

1. "The (Waste Management) application is based on the premise of private ownership.

OFF THE WALL

...which precludes public oversight. . .and may result in higher tipping fees."

2. "the (Waste Management) application eliminates the possibility of competitive bidding."

3. "the (incinerator) technology selected by Waste Management may or may not be in the best interests of the citizens of Lake County. . .and that the agency be given the opportunity to compare various technologies."

4. "the proposed facility is not necessary to meet the needs of the area it is intended to serve." (criterion 1, SB 172)

In addition to these arguments, members must consider existing impact of the ED-CO and ARF landfill sites on Central Lake County. We already have a toxic hazard which has been recognized by the Illinois EPA and has been placed on the Cerc list which makes the site eligible for state funding for cleanup. We have done our share.

Vow Campaign To Correct Code Violations

by BILL SCHROEDER

Look for renewed public debate on the question of enforcement of the Lake County property maintenance code for unincorporated areas and whether County Building Officer Robert Streicher and his staff are doing their job enforcing building and zoning regulations.

A group of Lake Villa Twp. residents, armed with a stack of case histories and documentation of what they view as dozens of code violations over a period of three years or more, is preparing an all-out effort to bring about corrections and focus attention on ineptitudes in the county building office.

Jeff Leber, a community activist, expressed the frustrations of like-minded citizens:

"We see violations going unenforced, blight persisting and indifference on the part of the building office. We want to do our part as responsible citizens, but we've got to get help from our elected and appointed officials."

Bert Miedler, operator of a contracting business who lives in a water-front home on Fox Lake, sees a sort of lawless attitude on the part of a segment of the population being perpetuated by officials who lack the stomach to deal with lawbreakers.

"Some people have the attitude they can do anything they want. Unless our building and zoning laws are enforced, neighborhoods in unincorporated areas will have to deal with ghetto conditions," Miedler asserted.

Horror stories about building and zoning violations abound in unincorporated Lake water usage this year?

A flooding problem in September and now a trickle of water in the channels in April! Did someone try to fix something that wasn't broke? The worst problem, and the one that pains me the most, is the ecological imbalance of our wetlands caused by human beings.

The wildlife habitat that is necessary for the survival of certain species is not there! The necessary breeding grounds for other species is gone! All species of animals, birds and fish are affected in one way or another. Where is our Conservation Dept. when we need them?

Possibly this does not concern the Waterway Management Agency as these animals and birds whose survival is at stake do not pay a users fee! Would the agency be concerned if we humans withheld our boaters fees because of the lack of water?

A member of the agency told my husband that the McHenry Dam is "always" closed no later than April 1! This was told to him on April Fools Day! I wish I could appreciate this man's sense of humor but looking out at my channel on a daily basis makes me want to cry not laugh.

The only good that can come from this mismanagement now would be to take advantage of the lack of water and begin dredging immediately. Something the agency "promised" to do when they asked the residents to vote for the charging of a fee for the usage of the water. Dredging has been the "golden promise" of every group or individual (seeking office) and impossible dream of the resident voters.

Irreversible damage has been done to our wetlands and our wildlife at this point in time—nothing can change that, but maybe the Agency can learn something from its mistakes.

Incinerator Mistake

Editor:

I take strong exception to your Just Politics item of April 2, 1987, regarding the Waste Management proposal. You did not reveal your source of information for that item but it appears obvious it was someone who had not attended the hearings. It is my opinion the Waste Management proposal should be denied as it does not meet the established criteria. And that is an opinion shared by many, including the staff hired by Lake County to review the proposal. They recommended rejection as did Fremont Twp., Libertyville Twp., the Joint Action Solid Waste Planning Agency, the Lake County Defenders, Citizens of Lake County for Environmental Action Reform, and the over 4,000 people who signed petitions to stop the proposal.

You did not offer any rationale to justify how Waste Management met the criteria. I can see how this would be difficult to do considering all the evidence presented at the hearings as to how it is not met.

You also dismissed the past transgressions associated with Waste Management very lightly. Perhaps the bribery incidents you mentioned and the fines for pollution don't seem like much to you but I assure you they weigh very heavily on my mind. You seem to think that despite hearing all that I am supposed to think, Waste Management is going to be a good neighbor. But hearing that an EPA official testified at the hearings that a special task force had to be formed just to deal with problems by Waste Management, makes that difficult to believe. It worries me to no end.

I am convinced this incinerator's approval would be, without a doubt, the single largest mistake ever made by a Lake County Board.

Destroying Openness

Editor:

As the owner/operator for many years of Bud's Bike and Mower shop, I know something about the interests and concerns of small businesses. They were not well represented by the views expressed by the Chamber of Commerce on the Open Space Proposal voted on in Fremont Twp. on April 7.

I'm here and my business was here because it is a good place to live as well as work.

All the Open Space Proposal would do is to preserve some of the open space that makes it a good place to live.

Traffic on Hwy. 60-83 is now so bad that I risk my life going over town to do business in Mundelein.

Imagine what will happen if all the open space in Fremont Twp. is gobbled up by development and we put 10,000 more cars every day on already crowded highways.

And I will have to travel several miles to get the view I now have from my windows of open fields and woods.

Letters Invited

Letters to the editor are welcome. They should be on topics of general interest, approximately 250 words or less. All letters must be signed, and contain home address and telephone number. The editor reserves the right to condense all letters.

Barkhausen Will Assist In Convention Decision

State Sen. David N. Barkhausen (R-Lake Bluff) has been named to a committee which will be responsible for reviewing the Illinois constitution in preparation for a possible constitutional convention in the early 1990s.

Barkhausen is one of five

Republican senators named to the committee of 50. The group includes Illinois government officials, educators, legal experts and public opinion leaders, and will study the structure and operation of state government and advise the voters, General Assembly, the Governor and the Supreme Court on whether a new constitutional convention is needed.

Barkhausen explained that the present constitution, adopted in 1970, gives Illinois voters the opportunity every 20 years to call for a constitutional convention, which means the question will be put to voters in 1990. "Our committee will review the workings of government and issue reports to help voters make their decision," he said.

Barkhausen said the Committee of 50 will include some of the people who served in the last constitutional convention. "It will be an honor to work with them and the other distinguished persons from various fields," he said. "The members' broad base of experience will be most helpful in making our evaluations."

Barkhausen observed that the existing constitution has been amended only four times since its adoption.

"This would indicate that it is working well, but the committee will study all aspects, hold open forums and then issue our reports so that voters can make an informed decision," he concluded.

Recycling Program May Receive Grant

Businesses, not-for-profit groups and local governments that are initiating or expanding recycling programs may be eligible for state grants, according to State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis (R-Zion).

"The Illinois Dept. of Energy and Natural Resources is encouraging the concept of recycling as one way to reduce the amount of material that is being dumped in landfills," Geo-Karis said. "Because existing landfills are filling up and many communities are opposed to the development of new dump sites, recycling programs must be expanded."

Proposals for the $150,000 available in the current funding cycle are due April 30. Grants are available for projects like municipal curbside collection, residential drop-off/buy-back collection and yard waste composting, Geo-Karis said.

More grants will be available in July.

Blast Edison Tactics

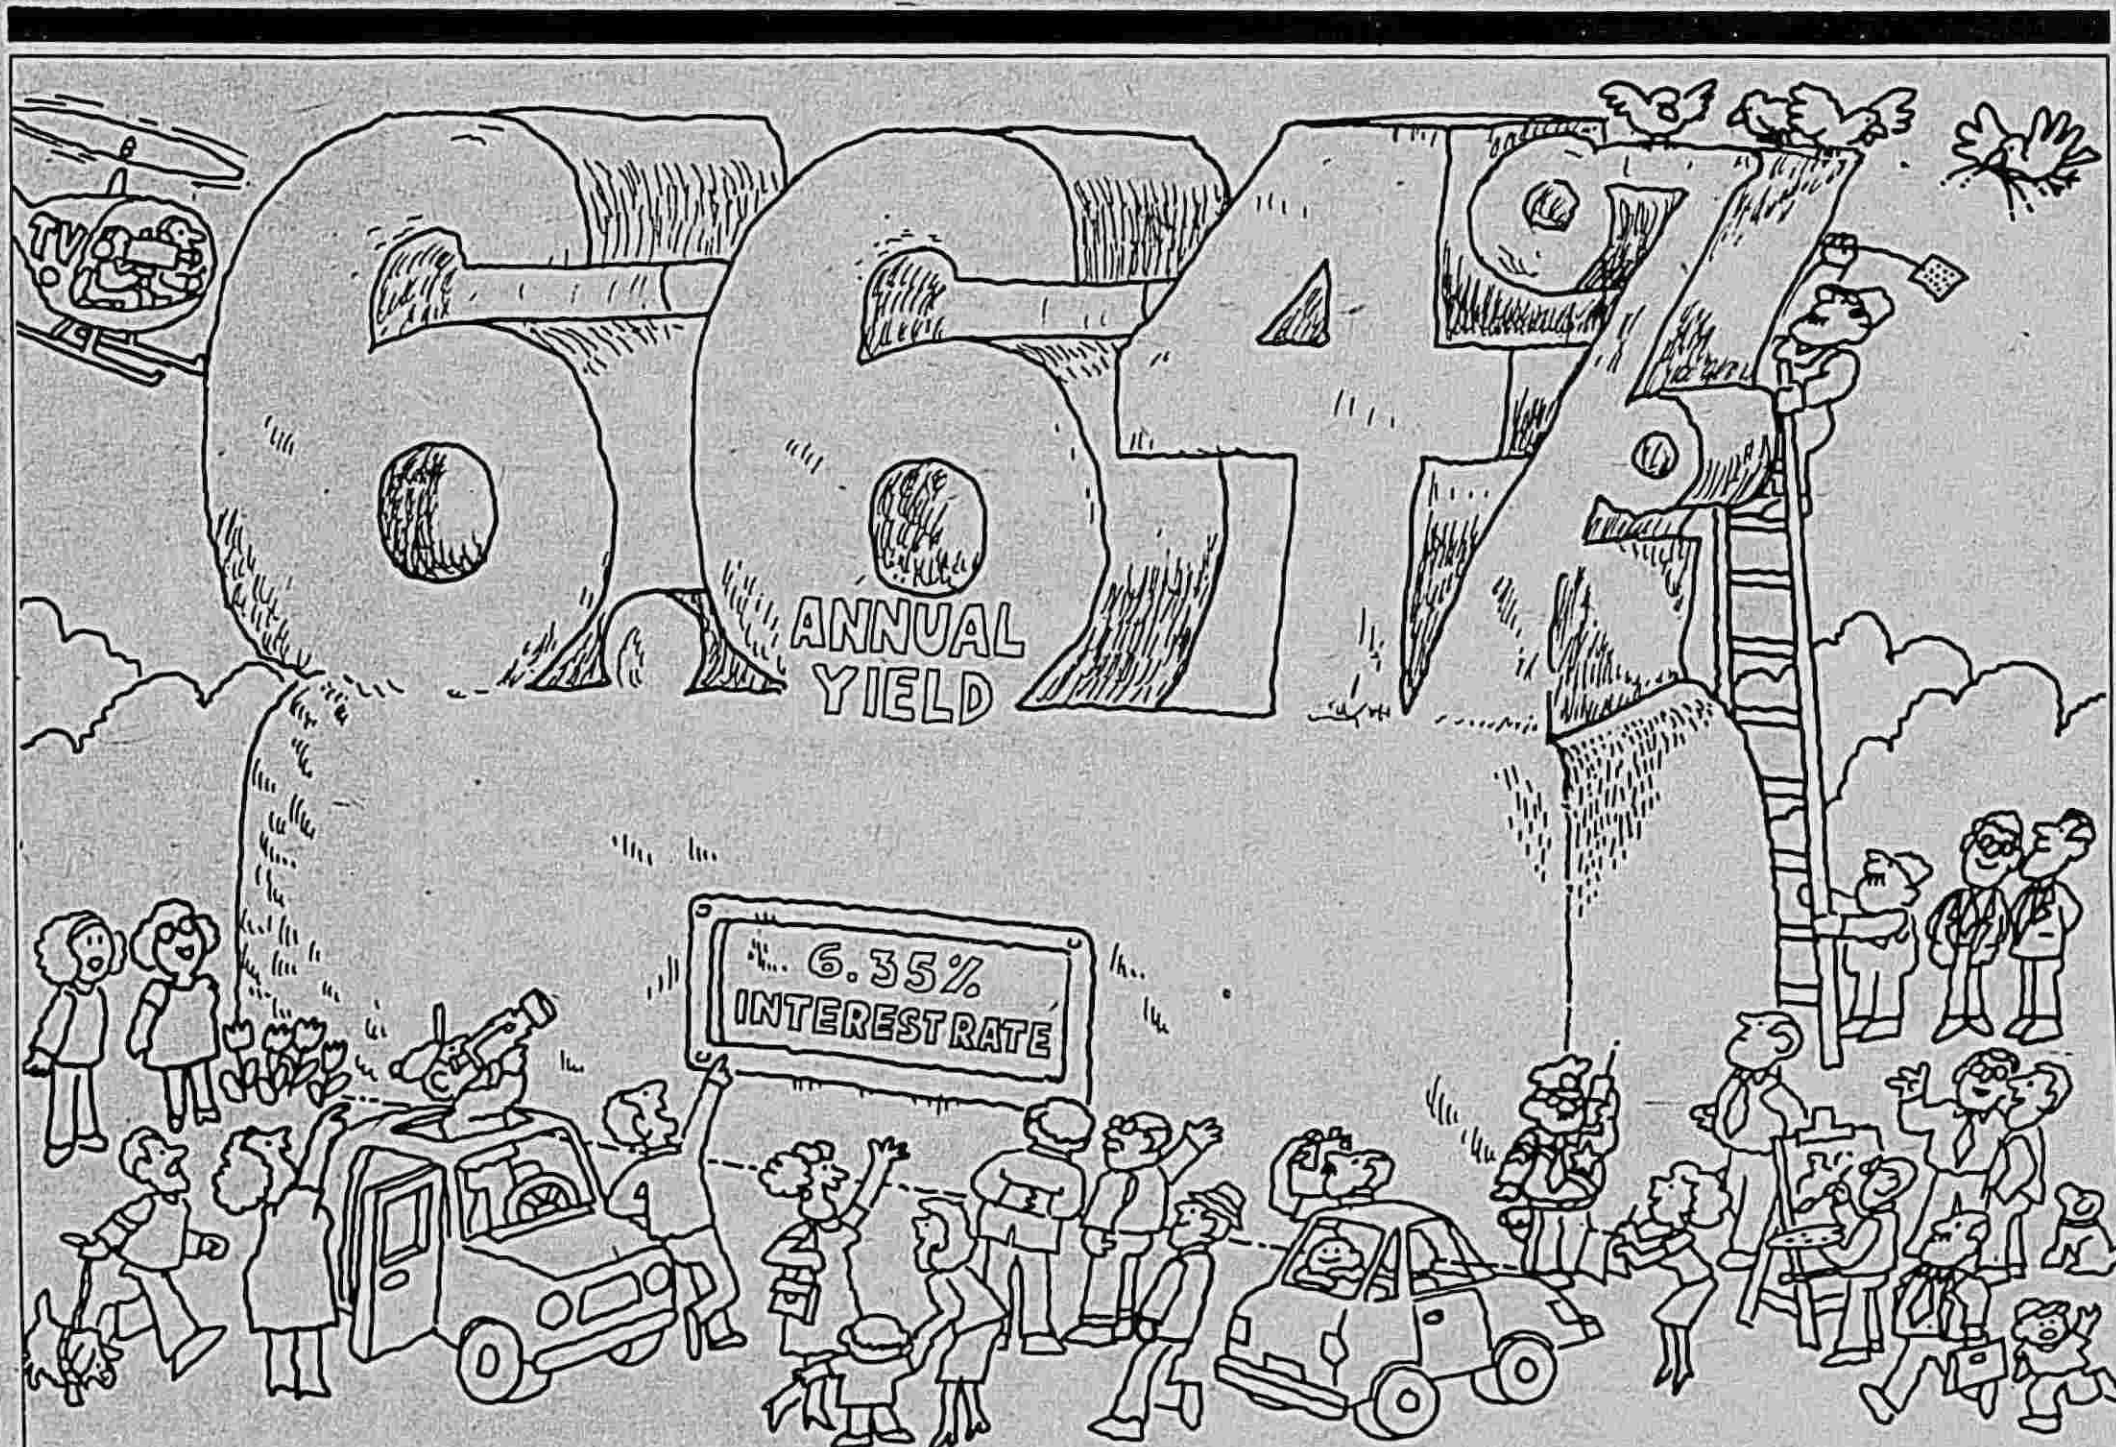

A resolution urging the Illinois Commerce Commission to stand up to Commonwealth Edison's attempt to bypass crucial state laws to obtain its rate increase proposal has been introduced by State Rep. John Matijevich (D-North Chicago).

"Commonwealth Edison is trying to get the single largest rate hike in Illinois history by a rubber stamp approval, rather than the legal regulatory process," Matijevich said, "and the Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC) should not be a party to that end-run."

Matijevich said the public utility reforms enacted by the legislature in 1984 are being avoided and evaded by Commonwealth Edison. That law requires construction audits of new power plants to insure that consumers do not pay for utility mismanagement, thorough investigation of utility plans to diversify or create subsidiary companies, and full and open hearings before approval of any rate hike. "Edison is seeking $3.3 billion from consumers over the next five years to pay for three unneeded power plants, and it is pressuring the ICC to approve the hike by July 1 and ban the legally required audits of reactor costs," Matijevich complained.

Matijevich called this a "steamroller tactic" and called for its halt. He also applauded the Citizens Utility Board for representing consumers and ratepayers against Edison.

"We can't let Edison get away with this one," Matijevich concluded.

'Forum' Is Good Comedy Any Night

BY BILL DOTSON

When it comes to comic stageplays set in ancient Rome or Greece, sex can sometimes be expected to play a major role, and the latest production at the P.M. L Theatre in Antioch is no exception. Lust of various kinds is the catalyst for many of the zany events that occur in "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum."

When dealing with a comedy, the most important question is, of course, is it funny? The answer in this case is yes, although not every time that it tries to be. Often enough to recommend it anyway. Yes. There are moments that fall flat but they turn out to be far outnumbered by those that work.

The story concerns the efforts of Pseudolus, a slave, to "buy" his freedom from his master, a young boy named Hero, by scheming to unite Hero with Philia, a courtesan in the house of Marcus Lycus, and arranging for them to live incredibly (and hilariously) complicated—especially when Hero's parents, who were away visiting his grandmother, return early.

The play is also a musical with songs written by the very talented Stephen Sondheim. A few of them are forgettable, but this reviewer's favorites include "Lovely Reprise", "Everybody Ought To Have A Maid", and probably the best-known, "Comedy Tonight".

Under Donna Badtke's direction and choreography, the P.M. L players do a commendable job of bringing the work of those three men alive on their own stage. Especially well-cast are Frank DiMarco as Pseudolus, Stan Livermore as Lycus, and Randy Miles as Gloriosus.

Leading lady Jane Miles' version of "That'll Show Him" was another standout.

Badtke and the entire cast deserve much credit for the well-choreographed craziness in the final act.

Display Nature Photos At Conservation Area

Viewers across the country can experience some of the world's most beautiful wildlife photography, featured in the 1986/87 Traveling Photo Exhibit of the Outdoor Writers Assn. of America (OWAA).

Thanks to a grant from the Adolph Coors Co. of Golden, Colo., the nation-wide tour, continuing from September to June, 1987, will reach over a million people. Exhibit stops will range from the National Wild Turkey Federation Convention to a Waterfowl Festival to the DuPont Country Club. The show will be on display through the month of April at the Edward L. Ryerson Conservation Area in Deerfield.

The exhibit, which has nearly 40 color and black-and-white pictures, displays the winners of OWAA's Photo Contest.

Prizes were awarded in five categories: pictorial, flora, action, people and fauna. The winners, who represent a generous portion of our country's finest outdoor photographers, include Joe McDonald, Bill McRae, Kent and Donna Dannen, Judy Cooney and Henry Zeman.

The pictures succeed in bringing viewers as close to nature as possible without actually being there. Each piece offers an intimate glimpse into the outdoor world: a jumping lab and running deer seem to leap from their frames; a peacock struts his colorful garb; a fisherman waits for a bite on a mist lake.

OWAA, a nonprofit, professional organization, has over 1,700 members who use writing, television, radio and other mediums to inform the public about the outdoor recreation experience.

Ryerson Woods is located on Riverwoods Rd. in Deerfield, between Halfday and Deerfield Rds. Call (312) 948-7750 for more information.

Schedule 'Arrest Cancer'

Plans for "Arrest Cancer," the May 19-21 event being sponsored by the American Cancer Society (ACS), Lake County Unit, are in full swing.

Lakehurst Mall, Waukegan, will host this novel fund-raiser with the assistance of many local officials and the ACS staff of volunteers and professionals.

Volunteer "arrestees" will be "jailed" in a temporary lock-up at the mall, and will need to secure pledges or contributions to make "bail" in order to be released.

The goal for this event is $50,000, a sum "we expect to Imagine a lawn that repels weeds, resists disease, dislikes fertilizer, stays green late in the season—and best of all—barely grows! According to International Wildlife magazine, a Canadian geneticist says he has produced 35 lines of such a miracle grass from 17 alpine species. The Canadian government is already using the slow-growing grasses along highways, but it will be another four years or so before they're available commercially.

At a national level, the ACS spent about $80 million on research last year, which is second only to the federal government's program. These research dollars provide the source for work in many areas of cancer investigation and prevention.

Bucar Defies Rules In Gaining TV Limelight

by GLORIA DAVIS

Breaking into the fields of communication and show business is a notoriously hard thing to do with the possibility statistics against most such aspirants.

But Jim Bucar, a native of Antioch until he headed Horace Greeley and headed west to Los Angeles in 1983 to study law, is very busy dispelling those axioms, the ones that say first get a degree in it and then be prepared to work away for years in paying your dues and then, just maybe--!

For the last 13 months,

Bucar has been producing and hosting his own 30-minute tv interview show seen on four southern California cable networks by approximately 450,000 weekly prime time viewers.

He is presently under consideration as host for a new tv show called "L.A. People," which is a new brainchild of "Real People" producer Charlie Rose and Steve Edwards.

Bucar's professional and easy going engaging manner has lent itself to interviewing many well-known personalities from varied fields of interest on the "James Bucar Show." The list includes Joe Namath, Richard Simmons, Steve Railsback of "Helter Skelter" fame, Casey and Jean Kasem, Dr. Leo Buscaglia, Cong. Barry Goldwater and many more.

Oh he did pay his dues for a short time after doing extensive legal research at Western University College of Law in Fullerton, Calif. for two years, by working as a disc jockey and bartender, appearing on a few game shows and doing some industrial commercials, when the show biz bug first bit him.

The son of Dr. Albert Bucar and Phyllis Bucar of Antioch, was supposed to go into law and maybe into politics before the west coast's show biz fever struck.

Just before Bucar left Antioch, four years ago, he had been elected 13th precinct committeeman beating out long-time local politician Michael Haley for the job, and was quickly becoming a known face in Lake County politics.

This was a natural follow-up to the year he had spent at the American University in Washington, D. C., where he served as legislative aid to U. S. Sen. Alan Dixon.

After viewing a video tape of the "James Bucar Show" that his son had sent him, Dr. Al Bucar said, "He really surprised me, he's good! And to think I couldn't even get him down to PML when he was growing up."

Bucar will continue to "act as ringmaster for an eclectic collection of people," keeping his fingers crossed as the deadline for choosing "L.A. People's" host nears.

Bucar Has Own TV Show

Jim Bucar, native of Antioch, has his own 30-minute cable interview show, "The James Bucar Show," broadcasting out of Los Angeles, Calif. One of his famed interviewees is noted author and lecturer, Dr. Leo Buscaglia, right.

Hold Resume Workshop

The YWCA of Lake County will offer a two-part Resume Workshop from 9 a.m. to noon, Tuesday, April 21 and Thursday, April 23, at 445 N. Genesee in Waukegan. Different types of resumes will be reviewed, and step-by-step procedures will show how to prepare a resume. The cost for the two days is $10.

Announce Plans For Woodfest's Summer

The president of WoodFest (Woodstock Summer Theatre and Music Festival), Donna Gregg, has announced the plans for the summer of 1987. Two artistic directors have been appointed, one in charge of producing theatre and the second in charge of the music festival.

Robert Perillo, artistic director of theatre, comes to Woodstock from New York City. He is a director, actor and teacher.

Among his many New York directing credits are John Hopkins' "Find Your Way Home," David Garrick's "The Clandestine Marriage," Oscar Wilde's "An Ideal Husband," Joe Orton's "What the Butler Saw," and many others. As an actor, he has been seen as Joe Gribble in "Room Service," Edmund in "King Lear," and Lt. Practice in "Little Murders."

Perillo is a teacher at the famous Stella Adler Studio in New York City, at New York University and the National Shakespeare Conservatory. He is currently writing a book on voice and speech for the actor. Perillo will direct the first play for the festival, a Midwestern premiere of "The Wake of Jamey Foster" by Beth Henley. Original music for this play is composed by Richard Isen of New York City.

"The Wake of Jamey Foster" is a comedy-drama in the same vein as Henley's other comedy-drama, "Crimes of the Heart."

The second midwestern premiere will be "Salford Road," with original music written by Richard Isen and directed by another New York director, David Petrarca.

Petrarca comes to Woodstock having just directed the Washington, D.C. premiere of "As Is" at the Studio Theatre, and Sam Shepard's "The Tooth of Crime" for the Hartford Stage Co., and served as associate artistic director for the Chelsea Theatre Center where he co-authored and directed "Spring Awakening," music-theatre-adaptation of Wedekind's classic play.

"Salford Road" is a musical for all ages. It vividly captures images and memories of childhood. Through poetry, music and movement, "Salford Road" takes us back to the street where we used to live, the schoolyard where we used to play, the friends, the joys and cares of our innocent past.

Both plays will be running simultaneously from June 10 through July 19 at the Woodstock Opera House.

The premiere season of the Woodstock Mozart Festival will follow the Summer Theatre Festival, beginning Aug. 7 and ending Aug. 29 at the Woodstock Opera House.

Joining Maestro Charles Zachary Bornstein will be some outstanding soloists, a 32-piece professional festival orchestra and a guest choir of 24 voices from Canada, the Elmer Iseler Singers of Toronto.

Ticket prices for the Summer Theatre and music Festival at the Woodstock Opera House are $15 for adults and $13 students and senior citizens.

Subscription prices are also being offered at a 20 percent discount if four different events are selected: $12 adult, and $10 students and senior citizens.

For tickets and a free brochure, call the Woodstock Opera House Box Office, (815) 338-5300.

Secretary's Day Fashion Show Luncheon on Friday, April 24, at the Landings in Libertyville.

The chamber offers this as a great opportunity for bosses to do something for their secretaries without significant time loss. Cocktails will be served at 11 a.m., lunch will be at noon, and the program ends promptly at 1:30 p.m.

Augmenting the chamber's fashion show will be door prizes and the awarding of the chamber's fourth annual "Secretary of the Year" award.

Dietz At Adler

It will be an evening of fine old-time music and singing when Arvin Dietz and John Snyder return to the David Adler Cultural Center for two shows on Saturday, April 25, at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m.

These veteran musicians are from the Decatur area, and have many Illinois folk tunes in their repertoire. Dietz plays fiddle and Snyder plays guitar and harmonica, an uncommon combination that makes uncommonly good music.

Opening both shows will be Jim Craig, who plays and sings an eclectic variety of traditional and contemporary folk music.

Long Tongue

The chameleon's tongue is as long as its body.

Slate Violin Concert

Violin students in the Suzuki Talent Education program of the David Adler Cultural Center will present their year-end spring concert at 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 26, in the Libertyville High School auditorium, 708 Park Ave., Libertyville.

This group performance, under the direction of Nancy Sorenson, will feature 60 violinists, ages four to 14. A reception in the school cafeteria will follow the performance.

On Dean's List

Dean's List honors for academic achievement were earned by Katrina Linet Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Meyer of Antioch, at Patricia Stevens Career College in Milwaukee, for the winter session. Meyers is enrolled in the fashion merchandising course.

Borrower Beware Of Home Equity Loans

Set in motion by the Tax Reform Act of 1986, most major U.S. lending institutions have launched a widespread campaign urging you, as one ad says, to "put your house in your wallet" with a home-equity loan. While the loans carry easy terms and the prime rate were to hit 21 percent again, the interest payments on many home equity loans would double.

Often the loans are advertised at a low "teaser rate" of about eight percent. The catch is that the bank then raises the rate by two to four percentage points after a four-month "introductory" period.

Also, many home equity loans are "balloon" or interest-only loans. Only interest payments are due for the first 10 to 25 years, leaving the principal due in one lump sum. A borrower could be paying $166 monthly on a $20,000 loan at 10 percent and still owe a $20,000 balloon at the end of the loan term.

If the borrower is unable to pay off the principal when the balloon comes due, he will be forced to refinance, perhaps at a considerably higher interest rate, and continue paying the loan off for another 10 to 25 years.

Since home-equity loans have only recently become popular, it is difficult to determine what the results for consumers will be. Alan Fox, a lobbyist with the Consumer Federation of America, fears that in 10 years many consumers who took out home-equity loans will be at risk.

"Home-equity loans are a huge gamble. Consumers are optimists, always assuming that large cash reserves will be there to pay off the principal 10 years down the road. However, an unforeseen family emergency or a change in the economy could make repayment impossible and put your house in jeopardy," Fox said.

Fox also warned about the dangers of using a home-equity line of credit for impulse buying. He suggests that homeowners ask themselves if they really have a specific use for the loan, such as college tuition or home improvements.

"The most dangerous situation can arise when a home-equity credit line is available through automatic teller machines. This often tempts consumers to use the money for frivolous purposes," Fox said.

Marshall Moltz, a real estate attorney in Chicago, also cautions against the possible long-term consequences of a home equity loan. "Home equity is something you build for the future, when you want to sell your home or retire," said Moltz. "It's foolish to risk something with long-term value such as your home equity for short-term needs."

The recent expansion of consumer credit through such instruments as home-equity loans and credit cards may be, in part, an attempt by the larger banks to compensate for low returns on foreign, business and agricultural investments. Many smaller banks are not marketing home-equity loans with the same enthusiasm as the larger lenders.

"We are very careful how we market and underwrite home-equity loans," said Beth Hunter, assistant treasurer of Cambridgeport Savings, a small Boston-area bank. "Since the loans are based on a floating rate tied to the prime rate, which will probably rise in the next few years, borrowers must be able to pay at 15 percent as well as at the current rate of nine percent."

"Since we are a small, community-oriented bank, we don't offer balloon loans, which can be risky for the unsophisticated borrower," Hunter added.

Seymour Orner, president of Deerfield State Bank, a small bank in Illinois, sent his customers a letter advising them against using home-equity credit. "I have been in the home-mortgage business for over 40 years and I believe that home-equity loans are not in the best interest of most families," he said.

"Owning your home free and clear of mortgage debt should be the goal of most homeowners. A home-equity loans delays and may even prevent a homeowner from reaching that goal," said Orner.

low interest rates, many consumers may not realize the risks involved in using home-equity credit.

As the last deductible form of consumer interest, home-equity credit is expected to double to $100 billion in 1987, from $50 billion in 1986, according to the American Bankers Assn.

Consumers can generally borrow 75 to 80 percent of their home equity, that is, the home's market value minus all outstanding mortgage debts. A home-equity loan usually offers a line of credit at a floating interest rate 1.5 to two percentage points above the prime rate, which recently rose to 7.75 percent. The loan repayment schedule is usually 10 to 25 years, often with an option to extend the loan.

However, there are potential dangers. The prime rate is now low, but it could rise quickly. For instance, in 1981 it was 21 percent. Although some home-equity loans have caps on the interest rate, most do not. If

When I Think About It

50 (or 60) but in light pastel shades. Most young ladies got a new Easter suit and hat to wear to church on Easter Sunday.

Today the stores are already stocked with lightweight cottons, including t-shirts, tank tops and bathing suits galore! Where's that in-between?

Gone are most of the dressy outfits since even the most casual is now acceptable in church.

Whatever happened to giving a bit more preparation to visiting God than to running down to the corner supermarket!

Remember the family egg hunts? Now mom and dad spend their weekends rushing from one big community or commercial egg hunt to the next to have their kids make a fast two-minute dash into a field hoping to grab a plastic egg or two before getting run over by the rest of a horde of kids. Some of the hidden plastic eggs give the finder big cash prizes.

Springtime between.

Remember those three special religious hours on Good Friday? Most places of business closed and going to church helped get one into the mood for the real meaning of Easter and I don't mean learning the words to "Here Comes Peter Cottontail."

Now it just seems to be another Friday! I don't think I imagined that it was almost always cold and rainy between noon and 3 p.m. Well it's that time of the year but —

And it was also almost always too cold to wear that spring coat to church on Easter Sunday but only below zero weather and a tornado would have kept me from wearing it.

I tried to find little spring coats for my two granddaughters this year and it was hard to find anything but poplin or nylon jackets or plastic raincoats.

I know — I know, times change, but I really hate to see people let go of specialness and regress to the everyday. Something special is just that, a very needed break in the routine of life. Have a Happy Easter!

U.S. Postal Service Gets Tough To Regain Business

The U.S. Postal Service has "stopped playing softball," and has developed a "get tough" marketing strategy designed to regain business lost to competitors. So says Wayne J. Gardner, a new breed of postal manager who is responsible for postal service sales, marketing and public relations in 236 Illinois communities.

"We have been customer-oriented and market-driven since the reorganization of our management structure," Gardner said. "That means customer service is uppermost in our minds, and it also means we are not lying down while competition runs over us."

Gardner says business leaders in northern Illinois who attend National Postal Forum Central June 14-16 in Minneapolis will learn firsthand what the postal service is doing to regain lost business. "Because we have a large number of mailers, we anticipate that many business people from our area will attend. Already many have pre-registered," he said.

Gardner said National Postal Forum Central will demonstrate the change in marketing strategy with sessions on subjects such as expedited mail that will show how new Express Mail customer benefits will regain overnight mail business lost to firms like Federal Express.

"These benefits include a new expanded mail network, a new noon delivery network and a new worldwide military Express Mail network," he said.

Gardner noted that although other sessions also are geared to the new approach to marketing, many will be concerned with helping mailers and the Postal Service work together to improve the acceptance and delivery of mail. Also featured will be sessions describing how recent postal service innovations can save mailers money.

Complete program information on the Forum can be obtained by calling (312) 451-2474.

Lake County Waterfowl Season May Be Shot

An apparent conflict between state law and federal wildlife regulations mandating the use of non-toxic shot could force the closure of the 1987 waterfowl season in Lake County. Clinton County and parts of seven other Illinois counties are also affected.

The Illinois Conservation Dept. is simultaneously pursuing three courses of action in hopes of defusing the conflict before the waterfowl season arrives next fall, according to conservation department director Mark Frech.

At the center of the controversy, Frech said, is a U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service mandate requiring the use of steel shot for waterfowl hunting throughout Illinois by 1991. USFWS is phasing in the non-toxic shot regulation over a period of four years, beginning in 1987 with counties having waterfowl harvests greater than 20 birds per acre.

An amendment to the Dept. of the Interior's appropriation bill, however, prohibits the USFWS from establishing steel shot zones without the permission of the states involved. At the same time, a provision of the state wildlife code directs the Dept. of Conservation to allow the establishment of steel shot zones only in areas where there is "documented evidence of lead poisoning" among waterfowl.

To prevent the closure of the first nine counties in 1988, Frech said the department is pursuing three options:

1) DOC has contacted the Illinois Atty. Gen.'s office to explore the possibility of bringing a lawsuit against the USFWS which would require the federal agency to change its stance on mandating the use of steel shot.

2) Frech has written to the entire Illinois Congressional delegation asking them to support the Dyson amendment and to sign on as co-sponsors for the bill. The Dyson amendment, if passed, would return to the states the responsibility for establishing steel shot zones.

3) The department is seeking passage of a bill, soon to be introduced in the Illinois General Assembly, which would alter the language of the state wildlife code and authorize DOC to give permission to USFWS to establish steel shot zones despite the lack of documented evidence of lead poisoning.

The last option, though the most controversial of the three, is the most likely to resolve the impasse, according to Frech. The chances of a successful legal challenge against the USFWS are slim and there is no indication whether the Dyson amendment will pass or if it will pass in time to salvage this year's waterfowl season.

While a number of vocal anti-steel shot waterfowlers oppose changing the law, Frech said he is keeping that option open because "I don't want to be sitting here next October and having to tell some hunters, 'Sorry, no duck season this year'."

Goodwill To Open New Waukegan Store

Goodwill Industries of Southeast Wisconsin, Inc., held grand opening of its newest retail outlet at 2009 Washington St., Waukegan. Mayor Robert Sabonjian cut the ribbon in the morning ceremony.

The Waukegan store is the ninth retail outlet run by the non-profit organization, and replaces the store which was closed in Gurnee. There are eight other outlets located throughout southeastern Wisconsin.

Revenues generated from the sales at these stores help to subsidize job training and job placement services for more than 1,500 disabled and disadvantaged adults on a daily basis.

The store will carry a wide variety of new and used materials, including clothes, shoes, furniture and household articles. Store hours will be Monday through Thursday and Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Friday, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.; and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Persons wishing to donate usable items to Goodwill can drop them off at the store.

Veterans May Participate In Central Illinois March

Veterans will be walking to Bloomington-Normal from Chicago and Springfield in the days leading up to next month's Central Illinois Welcome Home Veterans Parade.

The veterans marches are part of a continuing effort to call attention to the issue of American servicemen still unaccounted for in Southeast Asia and to raise funds for the construction of the Illinois Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

The Springfield group, being organized by the Illini Chapter of VietNow, will depart downtown Springfield on Wednesday, May 20 with overnight stays in the Lincoln and McLean areas before walking into Bloomington-Normal on Friday, May 22 - a day before the Welcome Home Veterans Parade on Saturday, May 23.

Details of the Chicago-to-Bloomington march are still being finalized according to Tom Stack, chairman of last June's Vietnam Veterans Parade in Chicago.

The veterans marches are just two of the events scheduled as part of the parade weekend.

Co-sponsored by the Central Illinois Chapter of VietNow and Bloomington radio station WJBC, the Central Illinois Welcome Home Veterans Parade is open to all American veterans and will step off at 10 a.m. May 23 from downtown Bloomington and march up U.S. Rte. 51 to Hancock Stadium on the Illinois State University campus in Normal. A post-parade program for parade participants will follow inside the stadium. Several veterans assistance groups are also expected to have at least a dozen booths outside the stadium.

Thousands of veterans and at least a dozen bands are expected for the Saturday parade, according to Steve Vogel, parade committee chairman. Vogel emphasized, however, that parade organizers are still soliciting marchers, bands and non-commercial floats.

Saturday night events include a candlelight vigil by the Patriots of Danville in honor of the war dead, those missing in action or still being held prisoner, a presentation of Debt of Honor (DOH) campaign contributions to the Illinois Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund officers, and reunions of several military units - among those the U.S. Army's First Cavalry Division and First Aviation Brigade and the first and third divisions of the U.S. Marine Corps. Some local and area veterans organizations are also scheduling special events.

The DOH campaign began last fall as an effort to raise $36,000 as the WJBC's listening area's contribution to the Illinois Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Springfield - $400 in the name of each of the 90 area servicemen who died in Vietnam.

When that goal was reached ahead of schedule early this year, and with several major functions still to come, the DOH campaign turned its attention to raising additional funds for construction of a memorial to be built in Bloomington-Normal and honor not only the 90 area servicemen who died in Vietnam but the 66 from the area who died in Korea.

About $12,000 has been raised with several fund-raisers still scheduled in that effort. Terry Edmunds, DOH campaign chairman, said, however, that individuals and organizations can still specify that their contributions go toward construction of the Springfield memorial. Meanwhile a special committee of Vietnam and Korean war veterans is being organized to make decisions on the area's memorial design and location.

American veterans of any era interested in the May 23 parade can call toll free at 1-800-433-8226 or (309) 829-6636.

Honor Top Nursing Facilities

Four Lake County nursing homes were among 161 statewide that were awarded bonuses in the Illinois Public Aid Dept.'s Quality Incentive Program (QUIP) to improve the quality of long-term care.

The four are Riverside Foundation of Mundelein, which received a six-star rating, and Lambs, Inc. of Libertyville, Mt. St. Joseph of Lake Zurich, and Winchester House of Libertyville, each of which received five-star ratings.

Under QUIP, each nursing home in the state is graded by professional nurses and medical assistant consultants employed by the department of public aid. Nursing care is looked at closely to make sure that each resident has a well-written resident care plan that is followed by nursing home staff.

Homes are also graded in such areas as structure and environment, residents engaged in meaningful programs which encourage resident and family participation in the community, resident satisfaction, and intensive programs to meet the needs of residents and special needs in the community.

The QUIP grading system rates homes found to provide the best care in all the grading areas as either five-star or six-star homes. Last grading period, 119 nursing homes were placed in those categories.

Houseboat Rental Vacation Is Scenic, Relaxing Getaway

Thinking of getting away from everything for a while? How about doing it on water—and lots of it? Picture this—floating for several days on a comfortable trailer—a houseboat.

In Michigan, three houseboat rental services allow camping on the waters of either the Inland Waterway, located on the northernmost tip of lower Michigan, or Antrim County's Chain of Lakes and Lake Macatawa in western Michigan.

Many boaters say the lake chains display unspoiled nature at its best. Among them, Maxine and Charles Meach, owners of Houseboat Vacations, Inc., can advise one on everything from the beauty of these lakes to detailed instructions on how to use the 40-foot houseboats. Rental of the Meach's boats allows one to travel through Elk Lake, Sekegamog Lake, Torch River, Torch Lake, Clam River, Clam Lake, Grass River and Lake Bellaire.

One of the highlights of the cruise is Torch Lake, designated by National Geographic as one of the four most beautiful lakes in the world. Torch Lake's marl bottom make the waters so unusually azure and crystal clear that people are tempted to drink from it. Some areas of the lake are as deep as 302 feet, but a two-mile area of the lake is shallow enough to wade in.

In the calm of a spring or fall morning, you can see trout somersault off the surface and clams blow bubbles that create a gossamer "Fantasia." From the houseboat, bass, trout, and crayfish are seen wiggling between lake weeds and plants. Even though a fishing rod is available on the boat, the temptation is to swoop down with bare hands for a prize catch.

As Torch Lake narrows into Torch River and opens to Sekegamog Lake Wildlife Area, stately swans, with their fledglings following behind, swim up to the boat and beg for a handout. Bald eagles keep watch from a nest high up a tree. Mallard ducks waddle ashore, while surrounding shorebirds mingle their songs with the sweet smell of summer.

"No Wake" signs, posted throughout the scenic inland water route, allow peace and quiet for waterfowl and shorebirds that nest under the highway bridges and piers. The only signs of man's intrusion are the remains of dead cedar trees at the mouth of Elk Lake carried by the rising waters of the Elk Rapids power dam, built in 1905. Ghostly tree stumps stand in the still of Elk Lake casting pyramid-like shadows.

Houseboats have enough space to tie on a smaller boat for exploring these areas. The boater should be wary of shallow spots along certain river routes, but after an hour's instruction, which is provided free, these spots will be as easy to handle as highway curves. Any boating novice who can drive a car can master them. Three to seven days' rental of a houseboat allows ample time to explore the 65-mile lake route and its 175 miles of shoreline.

The Meach's 12-foot wide floating mobile homes come fully carpeted, with sleeping space for four to six people. Powered by twin 225-horsepower Chrysler engines with a 50-gallon gas tank, the boats can go fast enough for a waterskier.

Houseboats have ample space fore and aft from which to swim, fish and dine, and sunbathe from a spacious roof deck. Restaurants, marinas and quaint old shops along the shore provide anchoring spots.

Houseboat Vacations, Inc.'s charter season runs from May 15 to Oct. 15, with rates 10 percent lower from May 15 to July 1 and from Sept. 1 to Oct. 15. Swimming and water fun are at their peak in the summer months, but July and August are usually booked several weeks in advance.

Additional information is available from: Houseboat Vacations, Inc., 10049 Grand View Ct., Traverse City, Mich. 49684; or by calling (616) 947-1946. For travel through the Inland Waterway, call the Lake Harbor Marina at (616) 347-3918. Smaller boats are available through Cruise America of Holland, (616) 396-1819.

More information on Michigan attractions is available from the Michigan Travel Bureau, P.O. Box 30226, Lansing, Mich. 48909; phone (1-800) 543-YES.

Reduce Cost During April

Spokesmen for the Lake County units of the American Cancer Society (ACS) have announced a cooperative effort between Lake County facilities and volunteer leadership of the organization to reduce the cost of a mammogram during the month of April.

Mammography is a low-dose breast x-ray which the ACS sees as a breast health option that can help reduce deaths from breast cancer.

Dr. James Manhart, Lake County Unit board president said: "We are pleased to have the enlightened participation of our area facilities during the month of April. A reduced-rate screening such as this, offers women the opportunity to put the cost questions aside, and investigate what mammography offers them—peace of mind and a chance to catch early, highly curable breast cancer."

According to the ACS, one out of 10 American women will develop breast cancer at some point in her life. Detected early, breast cancer is better than 90 percent curable.

The following facilities have joined the ACS in this effort, to increase public awareness of mammography: Condell Memorial Hospital, Good Shepherd Hospital, Highland Park Hospital, Lake Forest Hospital, Robert R. McCormick University Clinic, St. Therese Hospital, St. Therese Satellite Center, Vernon Hills Medical Imaging, Victory Memorial Hospital and Woman's Pavilion. A list of these facilities and their prices is available to consumers by dialing (1-800) ACS-2345.

ACS Lake County Unit Board President William G. Ries points out that Crusade monies make this current information on mammography possible.

It's Unanimous: Steinke Should Stick To Politics

by JOHN STEINKE

My 12 readers know that I have been the least read columnist in Lake County. Then I penned two columns about the false TV prophets and Pat Robertson's presidential candidacy. Suddenly I was inundated with mail: three letters. Here are excerpts from my correspondence:

1. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Damrow of Camp Lake, Wis., write: "I can think of several things more obnoxious than TV evangelists, such as terrorists, rapists, drunk drivers, murderers, drugs pushers, smut sellers. Perhaps Mr. Steinke doesn't mind these elements in society because they don't challenge his conscience. If he has a hard time distinguishing God from Charlton Heston, I would say his problem runs far deeper than evangelists. It seems to me his problem is with God. . . There's one more thing I find especially obnoxious, and that is prejudice: (preconceived, biased, blanket opinions condemning as a whole. . .) Lumping every person who rents TV, labels themselves Christian, asks for funds, in to the same category, and then condemning the lot lacks intelligence. It's like saying all Italians are gangsters, all blacks are lazy, all Christians appearing on TV are rich and crooked. How ignorant! . . . By the way, isn't your column suppose to deal with politics?

Comment: Frankly, the Benny Hill Show is one of my favorite TV programs. His satirical humor on sex is brilliant, and he doesn't beg for money. On the other hand, the TV evangelists claim that they have a pipeline to heaven while they pick our pockets to support their exaggerated lifestyles.

2. Bradley A. Kupsche of Lake Villa asserts: "You say the most disgusting thing to watch on TV is evangelists. That must mean MTV, the Playboy channel and soap operas rate higher for you! The word of God is what they preach (or should). Dr. Gene Scott is a false prophet (because) he makes up his own ideas contrary to the Bible. He cannot be in the same category as these other men. I don't watch Oral Roberts or Schuller much, but Jimmy Swaggart is one of the most godly men on earth. If you knew God, you would know where he is coming from when he ministers. . . Yes, Bakker made a big mistake. Why he waited so long to tell, I don't know. But I know he is saved, God has forgiven him. Can you say that?

Comment: How can you support "Adolf" Swaggart? He has criticized Congress and the Supreme Court as "institutions damned by God." Jimmy has characterized Roman Catholicism as a "false cult." Swaggart once stated: "Don't ever bargain with Jesus. He's a Jew." Oh God! Don't you remember the Holocaust? If we followed Swaggart's preachings, our country would probably become the Fourth Reich. Swaggart's church should be symbolized by the twisted cross: a swastika.

3. An anonymous fan from Fox Lake contends: "It doesn't surprise me that John Steinke thinks the public needs his brain to think with, but I am surprised to see your paper gives him space. Next he's going to analyze Pat Robertson. He's the one that needs it."

Comment: What are you trying to say?

County Probation Caseload Rising

The number of adults and juveniles being supervised by the Lake County Dept. of Court Services has reached an all-time high as of April 1, according to Fred A. Geiger, chief judge of the 19th Judicial Circuit.

The current number of 2,130 persons is up 19 percent over a year ago.

In addition, Court Services Director George Gallagher has reported that the department is also administering the public service sentences of over 1,500 defendants.

The rise in probation caseloads may be the result of the use of alternative sentencing practices which avoid the high costs of incarceration.

Gallagher reports that probation officers are putting in a lot of their own time in managing the increased caseloads.

Russian Bread Easter Treat

In old Russia, Easter was by far the most important holiday of the year, full of joyous celebrating and feasting. For not only was Easter Sunday a religious great culinary importance. The Easter feast came not just at the end of the long period of Lenten fasting, but also at the end of the harsh, interminable Russian winter blini to borscht. And desserts were by no means given short shrift in this gastronomic extravaganza.

Russia has produced two great Easter desserts, paschka and kulich. Paschka is perhaps better known and is certainly the more "showy" of the two, being an incredibly rich pot cheese and egg custard, traditionally made in the shape of a fez.

However, kulich, a bread of great richness and delicacy, may very well be the hidden jewel, worthy to take its rightful place with such other holiday breads as the Greek Easter bread tsoureki (which has red Easter eggs baked on top), stollen, panetone and the Swedish saffransbrod.

This specially created version of the classic kulich is elegant and delicious and surprisingly simple to prepare. In fact, it uses a mold made out of an empty coffee can to achieve the typical high cylindrical shape of the kulich.

So, on Easter morning, serve this traditional Russian taste treat, made extra special with Baileys Irish Cream. Hungry Easter egg hunters will thank you.

Prospective and current B & B operators will be provided with information on state and local laws and regulations, recordkeeping, taxes, budgeting and legal aspects. Marinade: Marinate the raisins, candied fruit and/or dates in half cup Baileys Original Irish Cream, the night before or several hours before baking. Drain well before working into dough.

Sugar Icing: In a small bowl with spoon, beat 1 1/2 cups confectioners sugar and two to three tablespoons Irish Cream until smooth.

In a large bowl, combine sugar, salt, yeast and one cup flour. In one-quart saucepan, over low heat, heat butter, milk and Irish Cream until very warm (120-130 degrees F). Butter need not melt completely.

With mixer at low speed, gradually beat liquid into dry ingredients until just blended. Increase speed to medium; beat two minutes, scraping bowl often. Beat in eggs and two cups flour to make a thick batter; continue beating two minutes, scraping bowl often. With wooden spoon, stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough.

Turn dough onto well-floured surface and knead five minutes, adding more flour while kneading. Add raisins, candied fruit or dates, and almonds; knead until smooth and elastic, about 10 minutes. Shape into ball; place in greased large bowl, turning over so that top is greased. Cover with towel; let rise in warm place (80 to 85 degrees F) away from draft, until doubled, about one-and-a-half hours.

Line inside of each of three one-pound coffee cans with foil; grease foil. Punch down dough and divide into equal portions. Cut three 14-inch pieces of 12-inch wide foil; fold each in fourths lengthwise. Grease one side of each piece. With greased side against outside of can, wrap one foil piece around top of each can to form a collar extending two inches above rim. A metal straight pin is also helpful in securing the foil collar. Cover; let rise in warm place until double, about one hour.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Brush each loaf with milk. Bake 50 minutes or until loaves sound hollow when tapped. (If top browns too quickly, cover loosely with foil) remove from cans immediately; cool on wire racks.

Frost tops of loaves with Irish Cream sugar icing, letting some drip down side. Makes three one-and-one-eighth pound loaves.

Chemically Similar Generics Don't Always Act Similarly

As a medical student, more years ago than I like to count, I came down with a cough that hung on so long that despair began to set in. I approached a particularly bright professor and asked for help. From that encounter I learned two lessons.

First lesson: He never treated anybody without knowing what was wrong. (For years I have stuck religiously to that lesson and many times have annoyed patients when I didn't know what was wrong and wouldn't prescribe over the phone.) After a thorough examination, he prescribed, by its brand name, an expectorant that liquified my dry cough. Weeks later the cough was back and the medicine bottle was empty. I went back to the pharmacist and asked for a refill, pointing out that I hated to bother my professor with such a trivial request. The pharmacist, knowing that I was a medical student, suggested that the same chemical in a cheaper non-brand name would do as well. I was grateful for the saved dollar and thereafter got steadily worse in cough and strength. It was the same chemical, all right, but was coated thicker and went its merry way without being absorbed by my body tissues.

Medical usings

By Leo Tannenbaum, M.D.

Second lesson: Two medicines may be chemically the same but one substituted for the other may not do the same thing in the body. We say it's not "biologically equivalent." Substitutes or generics sometimes fail to work for that reason.

About 15 years ago, the hospitals made a plea for a change in drug selections by the doctors. Every doctor had his own drug choices, and this resulted in a very heavy inventory since some drugs might be used rarely. It was suggested that certain standard drugs be relegated to one or two name brands, not generics. A sweetener was offered. Permission would be asked for the substitution. The doctors concurred. It was not unreasonable, would be cost-efficient, and the savings might be passed on to the patient. Although drug substitution was established as precedent it offers no problem except in special circumstances.

Outside the hospital the drive for cost containment brought some problems. There is a barrage of media advertisement that stresses that generic drugs are cheaper. That they sometimes don't work for the desired result has been blurred by the constant thrust that "our drugstore can save you money." The Federal Drug Administration (FDA) is charged with the duty to pay attention to biological equivalence. There is quite a bit of evidence that some drugs have slipped through the cracks and that the testing has been flawed.

Musings will now consider some recent, quite striking developments as some medical authorities have become alarmed as evidenced by the condensed quotes about generics noted below.

1. "Eight elderly diabetics suddenly fell out of control."

2. "Reaffirmed: FDA's generic tests found unreliable."

3. "American Academy of Family Physicians cannot unequivocally assure that generic products are comparable to brand names."

4. "23 Seizures Sound Alert on Generics." In this one, when the doctors bought brand names to prevent convulsions in their patients, there sometimes was a note from the pharmacist (that generics were cheaper).

5. Surprising was, that some few generics are more expensive!

6. "HMO pharmacists overrule doctors." This apparently occurs with some HMOs where given the diagnosis by the doctor, he may be overruled either because the pharmacist has the right in the interests of saving money, or because he believes he has more knowledge than the prescribing doctor.

To sum up: Some generics are good, some are not reliable. The testing methods by the FDA are flawed giving rise to uncertainty about the bioequivalency of generics, according to the authorities. Ask your doctor or pharmacist which he recommends so that he may guide you responsibly as to the biological equivalence of the generic.

Republicans Make TV Ticket To White House

by JOHN STEINKE

Every mass media revolution in history has been accompanied by a political revolution. Television has already had profound effects on American politics. It has made the two-party system irrelevant. It has produced new political coalitions and new systems of campaign communications.

In major respects, the electoral process is a communications system, a media permitting the organization and transmission of messages to masses of people. The political party as a mass organization was brought to its maturation during the Civil War crisis (1854-1865) through the growing influence of the newspaper as a newly-significant mass media.

In 1854, the country witnessed the formation of the Republican party. The GOP was the offspring of the modern mass circulation newspaper, to which it has remained tied throughout its history.

In 1861, the infant Republican party took charge of preserving the Union and, in the process, ended slavery. The nation then entered an era of hyperactivity—immigration, industrialization, closing the frontier, building railroads. The Spanish-American War (1898) marked the U.S. emergence as a global power during the William McKinley administration.

The nation identified the GOP as the party conducive to rapid change. The Republicans dominated politics for 72 years. Between 1860 and 1932 there were just two Democratic presidents, Grover Cleveland and Woodrow Wilson, and both were results of Republican splits. The Democrats denounced the "one-party press" and characterized the media as the house organ of the Republican party.

In 1932, the Democratic party acquired, first by default and soon through action, the status of the party of change. This was the result of the greatest crisis since the Civil War: the Great Depression of the 1930s. The FDR coalition reigned supreme in American politics until the 1952 and 1956 Eisenhower campaigns. The New Deal coalition was composed of southern whites, northern blacks, Roman Catholics, white ethnic groups, the Jewish community, intellectuals, Progressive farmers of the middle west, organized labor and the big-city machines.

The radio epoch of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt was the next communication revolution. The foundation of the FDR coalition was radio, because most American newspapers remained committed to the Republican party. FDR was able to go over the heads of an obstructionist Congress or a hostile press. He invaded the living room of the average voter through his famous Fireside Chats to mobilize support behind his party and his program. The nation identified the Democrats with ending the Great Depression, winning World War II and containing Communism. The Democrats created the social-welfare state with the New Deal of Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Fair Deal of Harry S. Truman, the New Frontier of John F. Kennedy and the Great Society of Lyndon B. Johnson. With the exception of Eisenhower, the Democrats won six out of eight presidential elections.

And then came the boob tube and "the vast wasteland." The Republicans were the first to exploit the political potentials of television campaign communications. The 1952 Eisenhower election was the first true TV campaign, and it possessed in embryo nearly all the features we have since come to regard as the characteristics of contemporary mass media. He employed expensive and sophisticated mass media experts. "Madison Avenue" techniques were devised to project a pre-designed image. A new kind of electoral coalition was formed, composed largely of suburban, white-collar people dissociated from the big-city Democratic machines.

Ike's 1952 campaign cut across traditional party lines to orient itself about the personality of the candidate rather than the party of the nominee. The new coalition of voter groups was socially and geographically mobile. Americans have migrated from the Frostbelt to the Sunbelt benefiting the Republican party. The new politics required image manipulators rather than ballot box stuffers. The new party organizations were ad hoc affairs created overnight by national cadres of political consultants, pollsters and advance men.

Beginning in 1952, the presidential primary has overshadowed the national party convention. That year, war hero Dwight Eisenhower defeated Ohio Sen. Robert A. Taft in the New Hampshire primary, while Tennessee Sen. Estes Kefauver clobbered President Harry S. Truman in the Democratic contest. As a result, Truman quit the presidency while Eisenhower was elected to the White House. Since that election, the New Hampshire primary has played a crucial role in nominating both parties' presidential candidates.

Television truly nationalized campaign communications and undermined the political party structure. Party politics gave way to personality politics.

The politics of personality requires distinguishing oneself as a dynamic person. It means polarizing the TV audience into those strongly pro and con. It has helped the Republicans to win six out of the last nine presidential elections. Twice, we elected Eisenhower because he projected the "father image." In addition, he was the greatest hero of World War II. Twice, the country has chosen actor Ronald Reagan. Even the Democrats call him "the great communicator."

On the other hand, television didn't contribute to Richard Nixon's two elections. Most Americans wouldn't have bought a used car from "Tricky Dickie." In 1968, Nixon was elected to the Oval Office because of the Vietnam War. Four years later, he was overwhelmingly reelected because his opponent was George McGovern, an ultraliberal.

Television has created a Republican presidential majority in the nation.

MOVIE NOSTALGIA

By Evan Levine

A guy stomps through puddles, twirling an umbrella, singing loudly, with a goofy grin on his face. Occasionally he stands under a rainspout or jumps off the curb. The stuff that history is made of?

Only if the guy is Gene Kelly, and the scene is from "Singin' in the Rain," the splash-happy Betty Comden-Adolph Green creation that is everybody's favorite movie musical.

Starring the high priest of hoofers (Kelly), the princess of perky (Debbie Reynolds) and the potentate of pratfalls (Donald O'Connor), the movie tells a tale of Hollywood in flux — due to the advent of talking pictures. But it is meshed with a classic tale of boy meets girl, misplaces her, finds her in a cake, woos her, loses her, wins her and makes her a star.

Though Kelly claimed that "On the Town" was his favorite picture, to many fans "Singin' in the Rain" — one of the 10 top-grossing films of 1952 — represented the peak of his career.

Later, Kelly made films notable only for titles like "The Devil Makes Three." Unable to appear in the movie of "Guys and Dolls" because of a contract dispute, he appeared in TV specials and achieved some success as a director. But to many people, he never outdid his role as the tap-happy star in "Singin' in the Rain."

Question: What movie musical starring Barbra Streisand did Kelly direct in 1969?

Answer: "Hello, Dolly!"

some confidence in a team which he feels has lacking that all-important ingredient.

"I like to think we're getting back to baseball. With a proper effort, I feel we can get it," Hiller said.

In order to try and get out of the NWSC's second round, Johnsburg will be on the arms of pitchers Scott Bowerman, Frank Husak and Frazier. The fourth is Ron Szat, who is a sophomore but a junior.

Hiller said he expects to be a strength but looking for a dependable pitcher as the league season

Junior Kyle Bers joins Bowerman, Frazier, Eric Mellum and Tony Weber as those who will be seeing the bulk of the playing time.

Husak returns the hottest bat from last year, when he hit in the high .400s. Bowerman hit .350.

Wauconda: One thing for sure about this NWSC season at Bulldog country: everyone will see action.

With just 13 players on the pre-season roster, that does not give coach Jim Van Fleet many friendly faces when Wauconda is on the field.

So, Van Fleet knows this might not be a banner year.

"We're a young and inexperienced team. It is definitely a rebuilding year," Van Fleet said.

Wauconda did get off to a good start in non-conference competition, as the Bulldogs split a doubleheader against North Chicago.

Todd Marlowe, an all-conference catcher, hit three-for-four in one of the games against the Warhawks.

Marlowe has but one other returning teammate from last year's team - second baseman Jerry DeLaurentis.

Van Fleet said before the season started that the Bulldogs goal is competitiveness.

"Our goal is to be competitive all year long. We have the talent. We need to get some experience," Van Fleet said.

Round Lake: New coach Jim Prorok inherits a Panther team which won the league title last year.

But this year, the rookie coach acknowledges his team will be one of many chasing Grant.

"Grant is the team to chase," Prorok said.

The Panthers do have a strong nucleus of returning seniors to do the chasing, however. They include pitcher-outfielder Joe Laubringer, pitcher-outfielder Keith Schmidt, outfielder Jim Hart, third baseman Chuck Banker, shortstop Bob Akkers and second baseman Damon Horn.

Round Lake opened with by splitting six non-conference games, but lost to Grant in the league opener.

Bond Injects New Attitude Into Nine

This year's North Chicago Community High School baseball team hopes to have a new look on the field.

That remains to be seen, but one thing is certain and that is that the Warhawks have a new coach hoping to lead them back to a winning season and earning respectability in the North Suburban Conference play which starts this week.

Supt. Ken Bond volunteered as the varsity baseball coach for several reasons. He wanted to deal more closely with the students and to get the inside scoop on the athletic program. Bond wants all phases of the athletic program to improve by providing adequate facilities, coaches and equipment.

So far, Bond and the 'Hawks have experienced success, beating Wauconda twice in non-league action.

Bond comes to the NCCHS coaching staff with respectable coaching qualifications. He has been playing baseball since his grade school days and was a lefthanded pitcher for Lindbloom Tech in Chicago. A former basketball player as well, Bond received an athletic scholarship to Adams State College in Colorado for basketball and baseball.

Falcons Work On Hitting

Salem Central's varsity baseball team is 2-1 for the young season before facing Union Grove on Tuesday and Wilmot on Thursday.

Central trounced the Antioch Sequoias in a non-conference double header, 2-1 and 3-2, but mighty Burlington edged the Falcons in eight innings, 4-3.

Coach Randy Krehbiel expected a tough game from Union Grove having split with them last year.

Last year the Falcons finished in second place in the Southern Lakes Conference with an 8-6-1 record.

"Our strength this year seems to be in our team speed, pretty good pitching and leadership, as well as our defense," said Krehbiel.

The Falcons are stressing work on team hitting to round out their strengths.

NWSC Teams To Chase Grant For League Championship

by STEVE PETERSON
Sports Editor

Now they are playing for keeps.

After a month of non-conference games and last week's conference openers, area Northwest Suburban Conference teams start league action in full swing this week.

It's been a familiar refrain this 1986-87 sports season, but once again the question facing the league is: can anyone catch Grant?

The Bulldogs won it all in cross country, football, basketball and wrestling and are going for their fifth league title this year in baseball.

"I don't think any school has won all the sports in the conference. Our goal is to win them all. It would be a great accomplishment for the seniors," Grant coach Fritz Kazlauskis said.

Grant started the season by losing two doubleheaders to baseball powerhouses New Trier and Libertyville. But since, the Bulldogs have won six straight for a 6-4 mark.

And with one league win already under his team's belt, Kazlauskis looks to his team to be the favorite.

"We probably should be the favorite because we have so many kids returning. But anything can happen," the veteran coach said.

Among the key players returning from last year's team are two-year letterwinners Marc Borton, Mike Kazlauskis and Joe Vocke. Borton will be moving from first base to catcher, the same position he had as a sophomore. Kazlauskis is seeing time at shortstop while Vocke is the squad's No. 1 hurler.

Kazlauskis said one of his team's strengths will be hitting. Last year the Bulldogs ripped opposing pitchers for a .368 batting average. Kazlauskis hit .521 last year; Vocke hit .463 and Jim Theobald hit .326.

A look at other area teams hoping to derail the Bulldogs:

Grayslake: There is an old joke in sports that the best thing about underclassmen is they become upperclassmen.

That seems to be the dilemma the Grayslake Rams are facing heading into the Northwest Suburban Conference portion of their season.

"I said from the start that we will make a lot of mistakes," Haas said after his Rams lost an 8-3 decision to Warren.

But on the bright side, Grayslake's fourth-year mentor is hoping an topsy-turvy race for second will benefit his team.

"The top team in the conference by far has to be Grant. The race for second is up for grabs. That is really a question mark. The rest of the league will be super competitive," Haas said.

Seven juniors and 10 seniors are on the Grayslake roster. Grayslake is aiming to better a 15-10 record of a year ago but the Rams are off to a 2-3 start in five non-conference games.

Returning senior lettermen are: No. 1 pitcher Mike Langer, outfielder Tony Bussone, outfielder Dan Keetwich and third baseman-pitcher Greg Dunski. Junior letterwinner Shawn Mauritz, an outfielder-pitcher, also returns.

One of the factors which will determine Grayslake's conference finish will be whether or not GCHS can find a reliable second starter to Langer.

"We'll need a dependable second starter and consistent defense," Haas said.

Junior Dale Ernest, Mauritz, Dunski, Cary Clowers and Greg Poulsen have been vying for the role.

Several players are playing more than one spot. Among them Ernest, Mauritz and Poulsen who are listed as outfielders, first basemen and pitchers.

Juniors Bill Beadle, Manny Cruz, Jeff Johansen, Nick Wiersma and seniors Tim Taylor and Shawn Walkington fill outfield roles.

Parola Looks To Contribute

A Grayslake Community High School graduate is hoping to make big contributions to the success of the Indiana University baseball team.

Junior Todd Parola is starting his second year with the Hoosiers, and is listed as a second baseman.

Last season, Parola played in 13 games for IU, with a .316 batting average. He had one homer and four runs-batted-in for IU.

He also led the "prep team" in RBIs, average and was named Most Valuable Player. He is president of the National Honor Society and is majoring in business management.

"The team has great cohesiveness and good chemistry. They enjoy playing together and have excellent work habits.

It's just a fun group to work with and to coach," Morgan said.

awks, Wauconda Hope To Play At .500 This Season

Johnsburg and Wauconda have the same hopes and dreams as the 1987 season unfolds.

The Skyhawks and the Hawks will be aiming to be competitive and chase the West Suburban Conference favorite Grant with degrees of excitement this spring.

"I like to think we're going to get back to .500 baseball. With a little attitude, I feel we can do it," Johnsburg coach Hiller said.

The Skyhawks, because of the seniors on the roster, appear to have the chance to finish in the first division.

The senior pitchers at Johnsburg to anchor the pitching staff: Scott Bowerman, Brian Frazier and Frank Husak. Senior Ron Szat who was not on the team last year, pitched as a sophomore and will return.

Other seniors returning for JHS will be third baseman Mark Clary and second baseman Brian Peisert.

"Defense, I feel, will be one of our strengths this year," Hiller said.

Hiller said the catching position, though, is up for grabs.

In the outfield, junior Klye Bers joins Bowerman, Frazier, Eric Mellum and Tony Weber as those most likely to see the bulk of the playing time.

Hitting, though, may be a problem for Johnsburg.

"Our weak point may be our hitting," Hiller said.

Husak batted in the high .400s last year and Bowerman hit .350.

Hiller has 18 players on his roster, 10 seniors and eight juniors.

At Wauconda, coach Jim Van Fleet could use a few more players. As in most WHS sports, there is a numbers problem this spring, as only 13 players are on the Bulldogs' roster.

"We're a young and inexperienced team. It is definitely a building year," Van Fleet said.

Wauconda has had to bring up three players from its underclass ranks. Sophomores Ken Klesch, a catcher and pitcher, pitcher-infielder Dan Richards and utility player Tim Rapier are joined by freshman Rick Dixon, an infielder-pitcher.

Wauconda does have Todd Marlowe back behind the plate. Marlowe, a senior, was an all-NWSC selection last year. "He's one of the best in the area. He can hit with power and we will be counting on him for leadership," Van Fleet said.

The other returning player is second baseman Jerry DeLaurentis.

Although the numbers have been few, Van Fleet said he is pleased with his team's attitudes so far.

"Our goal is to be competitive all year long. We have the talent. We need to get some experience," Van Fleet said.

Both Hiller and Van Fleet acknowledged that Grant will be the top dog, at least at the start of the NWSC season.

"Grant has the inside track," Hiller said.

But maybe, with a few breaks, Johnsburg and Wauconda could be coming up on the outside to challenge.

Grant Bats Get Hot

When Grant baseball coach Fritz Kazlauskas first looked at the 1987 baseball schedule, chances are he expected four straight losses to start the season.

That's because the Bulldogs opened with doubleheaders against Libertyville and New Trier to start the campaign. Since the Bulldogs have put it all together with six straight wins.

Grant will be hoping to keep those winning ways going when the Bulldogs begin a three-game homestand against Antioch April 16. Then the Bulldogs battle Maine East April 18 and Woodstock April 20 before resuming NWSC play.

"We started the year against some pretty good pitchers. Now we're playing against pitchers that are more of our calibre," Kazlauskas said.

Grant has received some strong pitching of its own last week in winning games over Warren 12-4, defending Northwest Suburban Conference champ Round Lake 12-2 and a come-from-behind effort against Carmel in a 4-3 win.

Joe Vocke picked up the win for Grant in the game against Warren. Clint Morley was the winner against Warren and Mike McDonald was the winner against Carmel.

"We have two pretty good pitchers in Vocke and McDonald. They've been doing a pretty good job lately," Kazlauskas said.

Against Warren, Mike Kazlauskas led the way with a four-for-four day with a double and a home run. Vocke was two-for-three.

Against the Panthers, Kazlauskas continued on his hitting spree with a two-for-two day, both hits triples. McDonald was two-for-three with three runs-batted-in and Morley was two-for-three with two homers and two RBIs.

Morley delivered the game-winning hit against Carmel.

After 10 games, Grant's top hitters are beginning to build their batting averages. Kazlauskas, who had a nine-for-12 week, tops the hitters at .576. Morley is at .407, Marc Borton .353, McDonald and Vocke are both hitting .333.

Talking Ground Rules

Grayslake baseball coach Jim Haas (left) and Warren's Ron Sheldon (right) go over ground rules before non-conference game. Warren notched first win of year with 8-3 win.

Wilmot Works On Pitching

The 1987 Wilmot High School Panthers have a tough show to follow with 1986's team having tied for Southern Lakes Conference championship.

So far so good in the '87 young season, with Wilmot beating Elkhorn, 21-8, and Waterford, 13-11.

They were scheduled to face Badger Lake Geneva on Tuesday, and Thursday will bring arch rivals Salem-Central and Wilmot up against one another.

Coach Joe O'Neill has six returning lettermen to lead his team, Lance Bestland(catcher), Andy Brown(all over the place), Mike Coyer(infield), John Kropp(infield), Scott Schenning(outfield-pitcher) and Dustin Vorpahl(outfielder).

O'Neill, who is used to his boys playing top notch baseball, is his usual conservative self in discussing his team's chances this season. "We've already played five or six pitchers, that position is still questionable."

He added that the Panthers have been hitting the ball, "so far, but that too can be an iffy situation" as the Panthers try for a repeat as conference champs.

Expands Offerings

All Illinois residents are eligible to compete in the regional competitions of the Prairie State Games, which begin May 2.

By returning a Games registration form and the $10 entry fee, an athlete is automatically entered into a regional event. However, a contestant can represent only one region and one sport at the finals (which are held July 15-18 at the University of Illinois.

Nearly 10,000 athletes are expected to compete in eight regions throughout the state.

In each event, there are two levels of competition. The Scholastic Division is open to any student who is presently enrolled in grade 12 or below. Anyone not qualifying for the Scholastic Division is eligible to compete in the Open Division.

Local Grads Help Aurora

The Aurora University baseball team's return north started on a positive note with a sweep over DePauw University. The games featured a Lakeland touch as two local products contributed.

"They were excellent wins for us, DePauw has a tradition of being one of the better division III teams in the Mid-East region and to take two from them on the road is a real confidence builder. More importantly, we hit the ball pretty hard in both games," Aurora coach Jim Schmid said of the 9-6 and 8-7 wins over DePauw.

Aurora, 7-4 overall, made things interesting in the second game. After falling behind 2-0 in the third inning the Spartans waited until the sixth before they took a 4-2 lead behind with two RBIs each from pinch hitters Jim Mullany and E Velez.

In the sixth, DePauw came back with four runs to take 6-4 lead which ended starting pitcher Maury Sage, a Grayslake High School graduate, day. Aurora rallied in the seventh behind three walks, one of which was issued to Wauconda High graduate Mark Morris. Mullany's double then won the game for Aurora.

After 11 games, Aurora was 7-4 overall. Sage is tops on the mound with two victories, 23 strikeouts and four runs allowed.

CHS Hopes To Gain Momentum In Non-Conference Games

Carmel baseball coach Joe Pudlo saw his team experience a gamut of results as his team evened its record at 2-2.

The Corsairs edged crosstown rival Mundelein 10-9, lost a doubleheader to Stevenson 8-1 and 54 but bounced back to beat Waukegan East 11-1.

Carmel faces Grant April 9 and Deerfield April 10.

The Mundelein game featured a dramatic comeback as Carmel trailed 6-0 after one inning and 9-2 after two.

"We chipped away and chipped away. It was really a nice effort. The kids could have gotten discouraged," Pudlo said.

Greg Gabry ended up picking up the victory for the Corsairs.

Bob Langer doubled home the winning run for Carmel after Paul Oskowski singled in the seventh. Carmel had scored two runs in the second and six in the third to get back into the contest. Carmel tied the game 9-9 with a single run in the sixth.

Carmel ended up outlitting Mundelein 14-5.

Against Stevenson, mental errors and poor pitching helped spell the double defeat.

"We just did not play well defensively," Pudlo said of the 8-1 loss in game one.

Carmel trailed the Patriots 2-0 going into the fifth inning before the roof caved in. Stevenson scored six runs in that inning to put the game away.

Tennis

At second singles, Mark Agne, a junior, will man that position while Darrell Splett is anchoring No. 3 singles.

Kevin Reidel and Jon Flood are 2-0 at first doubles and were the only portion of the Rams lineup to score points against Carmel.

The second doubles, after the first week, is still up in the air.

WTHS, Mustangs Field Young Teams For Season

Warren and Mundelein's baseball teams both will have similar looks for the 1987 season.

Both the Blue Devils and the Mustangs will be fielding young teams and coaches Ron Sheldon at Warren and Fred Pickett at Mundelein know that their teams may take some lumps early in the season.

"We're real young and we have a lot of juniors who have not played that much. It will take some time," Sheldon said.

The Blue Devils' mentor does have his son, Derek, returning as a catcher. The younger Sheldon ripped pitchers last year for a .418 average.

"Derek has to do a lot for us both offensively and defensively," Sheldon said.

Besides Sheldon, other returnees include pitchers Tom Thompson and Brad Beitzel.

"They came along well late in the season last year," Sheldon said.

But Warren, which finished 13-10 overall last year, may be in search for a solid third pitcher, the same situation the team found itself in 1986.

Sheldon said one of the challenges for most of his squad will be the adjustment from sophomore to varsity level.

"They have to adjust to me. One of the keys will be our self-discipline," Sheldon said.

In the outfield, Warren will be counting on Jim Harte and Wes Quist in two of the positions.

Mark Vendetti and Brendt Howard provide a solid double play combination at second and short.

"Brendt has looked super so far at shortstop. He fields the ball nice. He'll help," Sheldon said.

Meanwhile at Mundelein, Pickett knows at least two starters are back from last year's club. Senior shortstop Ed Meier and centerfielder John McNulty both return. But beyond that, competition rages for the remaining starting spots.

"We're going to have a young, inexperienced team but as the season goes on, we will improve. They'll be battling for positions the next two weeks," Pickett said.

Pickett said he hopes to use the non-conference games to see who fits best at various positions.

In addition to Meier and McNulty, pitching could be considered a strength. Junior righthander Dave Smith returns as well as seniors Jim Frank and Tom Trahan. McNulty will also pitch when not playing center.

J. T. Mathwig, an all-conference basketball player, returns to the outfield.

Netters Hope To Improve

Grayslake tennis coach Paul Keller is expecting to know more about his team after the Rams travel to Lake Zurich for a Northwest Suburban Conference match April 16.

"I'll know more about my team after we play Lake Zurich. They have a tough team with some strong players back," Keller said.

For the Rams, the NWSC season will be one in which they hope to improve upon last season. Grayslake was 4-3 in dual meets, but could only finish fourth in the conference.

"Hopefully we can move up from fourth place. A lot will depend on the first few conference meets," Keller said.

In the early going, Grayslake split two non-conference matches, losing to Carmel 4-1 but beating Zion-Benton by the same score.

The Rams will have to replace last year's No. 1 singles and No. 1 doubles teams.

Although off to an 0-2 start, Keller said Johnson "will be OK".

CHS Aims For Consistency As League Season Nears

Carmel's baseball team will be hoping it can shake the "one run blues" when the Corsairs face Lake Forest in the second-to-last non-conference game of the season April 16.

"It's been hard. I would say we've been real inconsistent to date and there are a lot of inconsistencies to work out before the conference (East Suburban Catholic Conference) season begins," Carmel coach Joe Pudlo.

The Corsairs started out on the right foot last week, clubbing Lake Zurich 13-0. Then the "one run blues" hit as Carmel lost to Woodstock 9-8 Grant 4-3 and Warren 6-5 in consecutive days.

Against Lake Zurich, Pudlo credited winning pitcher John Welling with pitching a solid game.

Against Woodstock, the Corsairs gave the Blue Streaks a 5-0 lead before rallying. But the poor start eventually doomed Carmel in the non-league contest.

"In the first two innings we gave up four or five walks and that led to some runs early," Pudlo said.

Carmel seemingly had Grant on the ropes in an away contest. Carmel led 3-1 with two outs in the sixth inning. But in true Yogi Berra fashion, the Bulldogs came up with three runs in the sixth to post the 4-3 win.

Shaky defense cost Carmel dearly against Warren. Of Warren's six runs, four were unearned on five CHS errors.

Derek Shelton and Steve Zager delivered the key hits for the winning Blue Devils. Shelton tripled and Zager singled in the seventh to give Warren its second win of the season against three losses.

Area Runners Fare Well

Area runners and walkers fared well in the Waukegan-Midlane 5K Run-Walk.

Approximately 500 people participated in the race, which began and ended at Midlane Country Club.

Pamela Uhrich of Round Lake Beach was first in among the female runners with a time of 18:48.

Reo Morem of Charleston, Ill. won the men's race with a time of 15:20.

Shelly Hazel of Gurnee finished second in the women's division. Vale Garvais of Cary was third.

In the mens race, Ray Krauss of Westmont was second and Mark Miller of Schaumburg was third.

In age group categories, the following runners won first place: Mike Russo and Heidi Wendorf in the 14 to 19-year-old group; John Duffy and Wendy Winters in the 20 to 30-year-old group; Chris Johnson and Marianne Curd for 31-40; Ray Isakson and Karen Groves in 41-50 and Clyde Downs and Alberta Wodek for 51 and over.

In the 5 K walk race, Neil Schuster of St. Francis, W.I. won the men's division while Dee Knabel of Waukegan won the women's division.

Mustangs Hope Close Win Brings Momentum

It was just the type of game Mundein baseball coach Fred Pickett was looking for.

"That was our best game of the year. We beat an excellent team and an excellent pitcher," Pickett said after Mundein edged Crystal Lake Central 2-1.

"That win possibly could turn our season around. It should give us momentum heading into the conference season," Pickett said.

Junior pitcher Dave Smith won the pitching dual for the Mustangs, who open North Suburban Conference play against Lake Forest April 18. Smith struck out seven Tiger batters and walked just two. Mundein enjoyed a strong defensive game as well. Pickett said centerfielder John McNulty made at least two run-saving catches.

Mundein, which improved its record to 3-5 with the win, took advantage of a Central miscue to score its first run in the first. With two outs and the bases loaded, Mundein scored a run when the CLC catcher let a pitch go by him for a passed ball.

After the visitors tied the game in the second, Mundein took the lead for good in their half of the inning.

Mike Kranz opened the frame with a single and moved to second on an out and to third on a passed ball.

Tram Trahan then delivered an RBI single to put the hosts on top 2-1.

Swiss Moose

One-third of all accidents on Swedish roads are caused by collisions with large wildlife, especially moose, according to a study by Swedish physicians. Doctors calculated that one in every 10 Swedes who drives more than 12,500 miles a year will collide with a moose during his lifetime.

Imagine a lawn that repels weeds, resists disease, dislikes fertilizer, stays green late in the season—and best of all—barely grows! According to International Wildlife magazine, a Canadian geneticist says he has produced 35 lines of such a miracle grass from 17 alpine species.

Soo, Wisconsin Central Reach Sale Agreement

Line corp. has announced that it has reached an agreement for the sale of its Wisconsin Central Railroad to the newly-formed Soo Central Ltd.

Wheeler, counsel for the Wisconsin Central Ltd., said "The new railroad will be managed by a highly qualified and experienced team. We expect that the interests of the shippers, labor and local communities will be well-served by the Wisconsin Central." He also indicated that Wisconsin Central, Ltd. management intends to begin meetings with transportation officials, shippers and labor as soon as possible.

The new carrier is expected to employ approximately 750 persons, chiefly individuals currently in Soo employment.

The sale is subject to financing and other customary conditions, and is not expected to close before mid-summer. Terms of the agreement have not been released, but Soo indicated that it presently estimates the transaction will result in a one-time, after-tax loss of $8 to $15 million.

After the sale of Lake States, Soo still operates approximately 5,700 miles of track in the midwest.

Americans Favor India When Traveling Abroad

Travel to Europe may increase a little this year, though the American dollar continues to decline on the international market. This, however, is good for our national economy. The money is no longer the Rock of Gibraltar and exchange rates have slipped 30 percent against the pound, mark or yen. Nevertheless, well over an estimated

Five million Americans will cross the oceans for pleasure in '87. They will still be able to pay whatever is needed, but may wish to avoid the Ritz. Competitive air fare bargains continue to attract budget watchers. Although hotel rates are up somewhat, there is no shortage of facilities.

We, on the other hand, numbered our foreign visitors last year at about 22 million. They spent $15 billion, says the U.S. Travel and Tourism Administration. That number is expected to grow in 1987 as dollar values change. Half of our foreign visitors were Canadians and we still benefit more in dollar exchange rates in Canada than they in our country.

Now if the desire is for super first class and the extended trip, how about a 14-day, pay-in-advance flight around the world on the Concorde? The cost? $25,000, double occupancy--add $2,000 for single. Be sure the trip is really firm, because cancellation within three months of departure, sacrifices the full amount.

Ever since Rudyard Kipling wrote his stories about India, which I read and reread as a boy, there exists a curiosity as to their credibility. During a visit to the office of Om Kapur, manager general of RAMA Tours in Chicago, we talked about India, its jewels, the people, striped tawny tigers and trained elephants. Kipling's old stories kept coming back with recollections of Ganges River, temples, $50 million solid gold buddha, buildings that jut from hills, holy men and multi-armed, cylindrical statues.

"We have been sending Americans to India for years," Om told me. "Next to the English, Americans are our most numerous visitors." For around $3,000, an all-expense, 16-day tour of northern India is popular, while others require only half that time.

RAMA Tours has been named by Air India as one of their 10 national operators. Om Kapur, now of Skokie, can arrange any phase of travel desired by individuals or groups having medical, educational, or wildlife viewing interests. RAMA Tours are at 36 S. State, Chicago, 60603, and coordinates directly with Chicago's India consulate in making special trip arrangements.

"Do you miss India?" I asked Om. "Yes," he smiled, "but where is there a better place to live than right here?" He should know. Perhaps its takes travel to appreciate the desirable lifestyles we enjoy without comment or comparison.

Tourism is a $24 billion industry in the U.S., and whether the destination is India or Indiana, travel provides the pleasure and pace change necessary in our busy world.

Spring Is Arriving At Antioch's Schools

by CAROLYN HAMMOND
(312)395-6081

Have you noticed how green everything is all of a sudden! All it took was a little warm weather, a little rain, and a liberal dose of "turf builder." Yardwork like housework never ends. But that's OK because like the ancients who celebrated the reawakening of the earth in spring, the anticipation of derway; ice hockey is over for Chicago fans as the Blackhawks faded out of the playoffs, and a few hardy tulips and daffodils have been spotted.

Our Judeo-Christian heritage also gives us reason to celebrate this week as Jews and Christians the world over meet to celebrate Passover and the Resurrection of Christ respectively.

An Antioch-wide ecumenical Good Friday service will be held at St. Peter's Catholic Church at 1:30 p.m. The public is cordially invited.

For theatre-goers, there's good news: PM&L has added another weekend of performances of "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum." There will be performances on April 17, 18, 24 and 25. It's a "must see"! According to PM&L president Aileen Biel, "...it's a tremendous show! It has everything from eunuchs to virgins to sex!" Aileen also said each performance has played to full houses, so it's necessary to call for reservations early.

Work on the theatre itself continues: the bathroom designed to accommodate handicapped persons is now finished, and carpeting has been installed on the stairway. To make reservations, call (312)395-3055.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Dist. 34 School Supt. Dr. Donald Skidmore, recuperating from surgery.

Hasn't this whole school year sped by? College students are in the final stretch. Summer school catalogs are already in hand. Vacation time beckons...

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Well I've been busy all week boiling and dyeing Easter eggs to have in a big bowl on my dining room table for those who stop by over the holiday.

Added a few chocolate eggs but it's still hard for old Annie Mae to get used to the prices of chocolate these days. I still remember when my mother used to put a chocolate Easter egg the size of a small football, inscribed with each child's name, in the center of all our Easter baskets. She paid less than $1 each for those eggs.

Wasn't the Antioch Chamber's Easter Parade last Saturday just great! Loved the darling official pink Easter Bunny. (Carol, you looked just marvelous!)

Speaking of great, aren't Randy and Jane Miles just that in Pallette, Masque and Lyre's new production of "A Funny Thing Happened On the Way To the Forum."

Also under great we have the feeling that Pat Ring's mother felt when she watched her son bowl a perfect 300 game at the Antioch Bowl. Pat also bowled a whopping 735 series for Kings Radiator in league bowling.

Ladies, have you bought your Easter bonnet yet! Remember when that was a big part of the holiday. I just love wearing hats, but sad to say, no matter how loud the clothing industry yells "Hats are back!" it just ain't so, at least not here in Antioch.

Whenever old Annie Mae dons one of her favorite chapeaus she's the only one there with a hat on—except for Marilyn Sterbenz that is who often shows up with a classy topper on. Good girl, they always look wonderful on you!

Congratulations to Mabel Lou Weber for exhibiting the most courage and conviction in the recent political campaign. Despite what popular opinion seemed to be (and with an election in the offing) she voted her convictions on the subject of the new apartments on Anita St., saying Antioch needs rental properties especially for young people who can't afford to buy a house yet.

10 reasons why you should maintain and increase your newspaper advertising when business is slow.

1. Whether business is good or slow, you have to get your share of whatever business is around. Cutting back your advertising puts you at a disadvantage at the very moment when you need an edge. Increasing your advertising gives you the edge.

2. In times of uncertainty, consumers are careful and a little reluctant to spend. They want to be sure before they buy; they want information about products, services, prices and values. The best source is newspaper advertising. Yours—or somebody else's.

3. Maybe you figure other retailers in your line are going to cut back their advertising, so it's safe for you, too. Right? Wrong. You're in competition for the customer's dollar with very other retailer in town, no matter what he or she sells. People have only so many dollars to spend and if they don't spend them for what you sell they'll spend them for something else.

4. There are more people working now than ever before. More women working, too, adding to the family income. People still need and want goods and services and will spend for them. There is plenty of business out there. Your competitors will be bidding for their share—and yours.

5. You can't do much about most factors in the marketplace: rent, labor cost, price or merchandise, what the competition will do. But one thing you do control is your own promotion. Remember that newspaper advertising is not just a cost of doing business. It's a proven sales tool that returns many times your investment in store traffic and sales.

6. Remember how long it took you to get started? Once you build up a business, you can keep it going with a moderate, consistent advertising program. But if you cut your advertising and lose your hold on the public's awareness you'll find it's much harder to build it up again. It's sort of like starting all over.

7. Your advertising is part of your sales force. Newspaper ads help to pre-sell the customers and help you close the sale faster. What saves you time saves you money.

8. You say your customers know you and for a while at least they'll keep coming in even if you don't promote? That's partly true, but shortsighted. Remember, one out of five Americans moves every year. So there's a steady flow of your customers out of your market, and a corresponding influx of new folks who don't know you at all. Tell them about yourself.

9. Here's a hard fact to chew on. Over any given period, a business that advertises below the industry average has sales that are below the industry average.

10. Advertising is "news" — about products and services. Your customers look for this kind of news in the pages of Lakeland Newspapers. In plush times, retailers often experiment with other media. But when the going gets tough, they concentrate their efforts in the newspaper because it provides an immediate payoff at the cash register.

Support Clean Air Act

The American Cancer Society and close to 40 other major organizations representing hundreds of thousands of Illinois voters are vigorously backing the Illinois Clean Indoor Air Act which designates smoking and non-smoking areas in public places. Of the nation's 50 states, only eight have not yet passed legislation on non-smokers' rights to clean air. Illinois is one of these.

Because the "voluntary route" to clean air has not worked, there is mounting public pressure on our state legislature to do something about "involuntary" smoking by non-smokers which, according to the American Cancer Society, accounts for 250 deaths annually in Illinois.

The Illinois Clean Air Act, House Bill 20 lost in the House Executive Committee on March 26 and will be brought to vote before the Senate Executive Committee on April 22. Adeline Geo-Karis, state senator, served on the executive committee. Joseph Dillmann, chairman of the public affairs committee, Lake County Unit, ACS believes the bill is precisely the type of enlightened legislation that should be supported. "Because the Illinois Act is largely self-enforcing, it is not costly to either taxpayers or businesses," he stated.

The area office of the American Cancer Society will provide names and addresses of area legislators on request. Call (312) 336-9293.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Weekly Tip: Don't be shy; state your desires clearly.

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr 19) Some long-held opinions begin to take on new aspects that may well change the way you thought about many important situations in the past. Consult with kin before making major personal adjustments.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) This could be your week to really set things up right for the new project you're about to begin. Resist the temptation to add any new personnel until you know what their duties will be.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) You're going to be asked for advice by a lot of people who seem to appear suddenly in your life. Your reputation for knowing the right thing to say may be tested but believe me, it won't be faulted.

Cancer (June 21-Jul 20) The Cancerian crab needs more assurance than usual, so don't be ashamed to ask for emotional support as you move through a difficult period. In business, opt for the safer choice.

Leo (Jul 21-Aug 22) Shine as brightly as you dare this week because you're destined to dazzle an audience that will come around to your way of thinking quickly. Take this opportunity to discuss your project opening and earnestly.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Everyone isn't as tidy as you are about certain things, so stop being so determined to get them to follow your example. Instead of being so insistent, start being a little more tolerant; everyone will benefit.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct 22) You can make some very good dollar-wise decisions this week. Your need to keep things balanced work to your advantage. Take time out for a little unplanned frivolity.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Your fondness for the great outdoors is shared by a very special friend who would love to be invited to come along on your next trip. You know who that is so stop being so shy and ask.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Just when you think you've made a hit, something seems to have gone amiss. Don't worry about it. You'll soon find yourself moving into a more clearly defined direction where things are less likely to go wrong.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) This could be a week when you can get things done that would otherwise be left undone. Help is finally available and you won't even have to ask twice for it. Lucky you!

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Your good sense and warm heart make you a very special person and someone very special in your life will be asking you a very special question. Can you guess what it will be? I'll bet you can.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) That pesky problem on the job is still causing some upsetting situations. Best advice: Consult a superior to help get things under control before you're completely swamped by chaos.

Four Countians Receive WIM Achievement Awards

The Lake Suburban Chapter of Women in Management is honoring four WIM members who are the winners of the Charlotte Danstrom Women of Achievement awards in their respective areas of endeavor.

Winners are Clair Callan, MD, of Libertyville, corporate category; Mary Vasquez, Ph.D., Wadsworth, entrepreneur category; Sharon M. Weinstein, Deerfield, government/not-for-profit/social service category; and Linda Wetherbe, Ed.D., Grayslake, academic category.

Dr. Clair Callan is director of medical affairs, Hospital Products Division, at Abbott Laboratories. Previously she was senior staff physician at Abbott's, responsible for protocol development and monitoring clinical trials. Callan led the first delegation of women physicians to China in 1986, at the invitation of the Chinese Medical Assn., and was a member of the Governor's Task Force on Traumatic Brain Injury and a past president of the American Medical Women's Assn., 1984.

Mary Vasquez is president of Vasquez Management Consultants. She also serves on the ALMACA board of directors, is a member of EASNA and the Northern Illinois Assn. of Personnel Administrators. Vasquez developed the first International Conference on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse sponsored by the World Health Organization; developed a $3 million model self-sustaining farm for chronically mentally ill; and helped found the Warren Twp. Drug Abuse Task Force.

Sharon Weinstein is administrative director of the University Clinics and University Practice Plan at the University of Health Sciences/Chicago Medical School, and is an adjunct lecturer in the Dept. of Surgery. She has received national and international recognition for her leadership and achievement in several professional associations. Weinstein has been actively involved in youth soccer programs, the PTA, and served three years as a volunteer in the division of mental health and retardation in a Texas state school.

Dr. Linda Wetherbe is coordinator of the human services program at the College of Lake County. She is also founder of Therapeutic Services for Human Development, a counseling agency which focuses on issues such as pain management and chemical dependency. In 1985, she was recognized by the U.S. Attorney General's office for her key role on a Lake County task force on Child sexual abuse. Wetherbe developed a new counseling education major at CLC in the areas of alcoholism, substance abuse and addictive disorders. Wetherbe is also a founding board member of Bog Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County, was volunteer of the year for 1984 and 1985, and is a member of the Lake County Vocational Center Child Care Advisory Committee.

The awards were to be presented at a luncheon on April 15 at the Landings of Libertyville.
